PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This hybrid Article 78 petition and Complaint against the New York City Department of Education and Carmen Fariña, as Chancellor of the New York City Department of Education (collectively “Respondents” or “DOE”) arises out of Respondents’ repeated failure to determine whether to grant or deny access to information Petitioners have requested as is required by the Freedom of Information Law (“FOIL”). Instead, Respondents have engaged in a pattern and practice of unilaterally granting themselves repeated extensions of time to respond to FOIL requests ad infinitum, thereby flouting their duty under FOIL to make their records available to the public.

2. FOIL requires that within five business days of the receipt of a request for records, an agency must “make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a) (emphasis added).

3. Since September 2014, Petitioners have submitted a number of FOIL requests to DOE. In each case, DOE Central Records Access Officer & Agency Attorney Joseph A. Baranello has acknowledged receipt of the request by letter and stated that “a response is currently anticipated by [x date].”

4. Not once, however, have Respondents granted or denied the request by the anticipated date, and instead Mr. Baranello has sent the following form letter, again and again:

This letter concerns the above-referenced Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request. Pursuant to section VI.B of Chancellor’s Regulation D-110, due to the volume and complexity of requests we receive and process, and to determine whether any records or portions thereof will be subject to redactions permitted under Public Officers Law §87(2), additional time is required to respond substantively to your request. Accordingly, a response is currently anticipated by [x date].

(hereinafter the “Form Delay Letter”).

5. This Form Delay Letter offers no legally-cognizable explanation for DOE’s unilateral delays in determining whether it will grant or deny a request. Nor does the Form Delay Letter offer an approximate date that is “reasonable under the circumstances of the request.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a). Instead, Respondents completely ignore the circumstances of the request and, without any consideration of how long the determination of whether to grant or deny a particular request should reasonably take or the particular factors that may affect the time for a decision, kick the proverbial can down the road to the Petitioners' and the public's detriment.

6. Petitioners are left in limbo – their requests neither granted nor denied – with the only certainty being the receipt of another monthly Form Delay Letter from Respondents gifting themselves more time and abdicating their statutory duty to make their records available to the public. All the while, the Petitioners and the public are left in the dark about the workings and failings of their government.

7. Recognizing that Respondents refuse to even determine whether Petitioners' requests should be granted or denied – let alone provide Petitioners with the requested documents – in May 2016 Petitioners construed Respondents' excessive delays in responding as constructive denials of their requests and filed administrative appeals of the constructive denials with the DOE (Ms. Edelman and Mr. Short on May 18, 2016 and Mr. Gonen on May 24, 2016). At the time of filing their administrative appeals, Petitioners were collectively waiting for Respondents to grant or deny twelve separate FOIL requests – five (5) for Ms. Edelman, four (4) for Mr. Short, and three (3) for Mr. Gonen. Petitioners had received between three (3) and fourteen (14) Form Delay Letters for each request, and had been waiting for between four (4) and twenty (20) months for responses to each request. As of the date of this Petition, Petitioners have been awaiting a “yes” or a “no” on each of the remaining ten outstanding requests for between more than six (6) months and more than twenty (20) months.

8. In decisions dated June 6, 2015 and June 8, 2015, the First Deputy General Counsel of the DOE Judy Nathan, on behalf of Respondents, rejected Petitioners' administrative appeals, finding that the requests had not been constructively denied and were not ripe for review. Ms. Nathan reasoned that because Respondents continued to send monthly extension letters with new “approximate date[s]” for the agency to respond, and because the Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) considers a request constructively denied only when the request is neither granted nor denied “within the time limits set forth . . . in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s) . . . ,” no constructive denial could occur so long as DOE continued to send Form Delay Letters.

9. The Chancellor’s Regulation which provides for unlimited “extension letter(s)” is an invalid usurpation of legislative authority, as it is inconsistent with the language and the legislative purpose of Public Officers Law § 89(3)(a) and the Committee on Open Government’s implementing regulations (the “Implementing Regulations”), neither of which authorizes multiple unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request.

10. If this provision of the Chancellor’s Regulation is allowed to stand – or if Respondents’ actions here in taking repeated unilateral pro forma extensions of their time to grant or deny a request is condoned as “reasonable under the circumstances of the request(s)” – the entire FOIL would be rendered meaningless and agencies could avoid (or in DOE’s case, continue to avoid) providing public records merely by sending the same pat letter month after month – and avoid any administrative or judicial review by claiming their extensions are not constructive denials.

11. Having now exhausted their administrative remedies, Petitioners now seek (1) a declaration pursuant to CPLR § 3001 that Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) is invalid and contrary to FOIL and the Implementing Regulations, and that the DOE’s practice of granting itself serial unilateral extensions of time to respond to FOIL requests is unlawful and tantamount to a constructive denial; and (2) an Order pursuant to Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice

Law and Rules, directing the DOE to produce all disclosable records responsive to Petitioners' ten outstanding requests<sup>1</sup> within twenty (20) days of the Court's order; and (3) award Petitioners their the costs and fees, together with such other and further relief the Court deems just and proper.

PARTIES

12. Petitioner NYP Holdings, Inc. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Delaware with its principal place of business at 1211 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York, 10036-8790. NYP Holdings, Inc. is the publisher of the New York Post (the "Post"), the oldest, continuously published daily newspaper in the United States, having first been published by Alexander Hamilton in 1801. Today, the Post is sold in many states in the United States, both at newsstands, by subscription, and digitally via the Internet.

13. Petitioner Susan Edelman is an investigative reporter for the New York Post Sunday edition who covers a variety of news beats including education news. She has reported extensively on education spending, teacher pay, misconduct in education, and a host of other topics of significant public interest.

14. Petitioner Aaron Short is an investigative reporter for the New York Post Sunday edition covering government. Between January 2014 and June 2015 he covered education and state government for the Post's daily edition. In both roles, he has reported on various issues of significant public interest relating to education and the New York City Department of Education.

15. Petitioner Yoav Gonen is an investigative reporter and the City Hall Bureau Chief for the New York Post. In this role, he has reported extensively on various issues of significant public interest relating to education and the New York City Department of Education.

<sup>1</sup> Since Ms. Edelman and Mr. Short filed their administrative appeal, perhaps fearing this action, Respondents have granted in part two of the nine FOIL requests at issue on their appeal – F#11,479 on May 27, 2016 and F#10,586 on June 17, 2016. The Requests, however, are relevant to Petitioners' request for declaratory relief under CPLR § 3001.

16. Respondent the New York City Department of Education consists of the Board of Education of the City School District of the City of New York, also known as the Panel for Educational Policy, established by Educ. Law § 2590(b), the Chancellor, and other school employees.<sup>2</sup> DOE is an “agency” within the meaning of Public Off. Law § 86(3). Its principal office is located at 52 Chambers Street, Room 308, New York, NY 10007.

17. Respondent Carmen Fariña is the Chancellor of the DOE and is charged with administration of New York City’s public schools, including the provision of academic standards, student placement, school funding, and teacher recruitment. Her principal office is located at 52 Chambers Street, New York, NY 10007.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

18. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 7801 et seq. to review the actions by bodies or officers who have failed to perform a duty enjoined on them by law.

19. The court also has jurisdiction pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 3001 to render declaratory relief.

20. Venue properly lies in New York County pursuant to CPLR § 506(b) and CPLR § 7804(b) because that is where DOE’s principal office is located and because it is within the judicial district wherein DOE made the determinations petitioned against and complained of and where it refused to perform the duties specifically enjoined upon it by law.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

I. THE FIRST REQUEST (F#10,586)

21. On September 23, 2014, Mr. Short requested the following records from the DOE

<sup>2</sup> See DOE, Bylaws of the Panel for Educational Policy of the Department of Education of the City School District of the City of New York, <http://schools.nyc.gov/AboutUs/leadership/PEP/bylaws/default.htm> (last visited Jun. 28, 2016).

(the “First Request”): a list of public school teachers, sorted by school, who have taken between 11 and 20 days off from school in the 2013-2014 school year, and a list of teachers who have taken 20 or more days off. A true and correct copy of the First Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

22. DOE is required to maintain this record. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to employee absences or accruals, employee’s time records covering leave, absences, hours worked and scheduling, vacation schedules, report of absence and request for leave without pay).

23. On September 30, 2014, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Short acknowledging receipt of his request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by October 29, 2014. A true and correct copy of the September 30, 2014 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

24. On October 29, 2014, however, instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Short received a Form Delay Letter from Mr. Baranello stating that “a response is currently anticipated by December 1, 2014.” Over the next several months, Mr. Baranello sent a series of identical Form Delay Letters to Mr. Short granting DOE unilateral extensions of its time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- February 2, 2015,
- March 31, 2015,
- April 28, 2015,
- May 27, 2015,
- June 24, 2015,
- September 18, 2015,

- October 19, 2015,
- November 17, 2015,
- December 17, 2015,
- January 21, 2016,
- February 19, 2016,
- March 18, 2016, and
- April 15, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the First Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

25. At the time Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal on May 18, 2016, the April 15, 2016 deadline had passed and Mr. Short had received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter from Respondent.

26. On June 17, 2016, a month after the appeal was filed, more than two months after the most recent “approximate date” for DOE to grant or deny the request had passed, and twenty one (21) months after Mr. Short filed his initial request, Petitioners received a response from Respondent, granting in part the First Request. Mr. Short was provided with a single excel spreadsheet with the name of every teacher redacted. The amount of time it took to review and redact this single document – Respondents’ stated reason for the delay other than the volume of other requests – took only as long as it would take to type the word “REDACTED” and paste it into two columns of a spreadsheet. A true and correct copy of the Response to the First Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

27. Because DOE took so long to respond to the First Request, the information sought in the request for the 2013-2014 school year is now stale. As a result, Petitioners did not appeal this partial denial.

II. THE SECOND REQUEST (F#10,764)

28. On November 20, 2014, Mr. Short requested the following records from the DOE (the “Second Request”): a list or spreadsheet of arrests of DOE employees and the type of crime or non-criminal incident for which they were charged from January 1, 2010 to November 20, 2014. A true and correct copy of the Second Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

29. DOE is required to maintain this record. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to investigative records and disciplinary proceedings, personnel-related records of reports of allegations of child abuse against school employees and volunteers in an “educational setting”).

30. On December 1, 2014, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Short acknowledging receipt of his request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by December 31, 2014. A true and correct copy of the December 1, 2014 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

31. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Short a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- February 2, 2015,
- March 31, 2015,
- April 28, 2015,
- May 27, 2015,
- June 24, 2015,
- August 20, 2015,
- September 18, 2015,

- October 19, 2015,
- November 17, 2015,
- December 17, 2015,
- January 21, 2016,
- February 19, 2016,
- March 18, 2016, and
- April 15, 2016.

32. At the time Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal on May 18, 2016, the April 15, 2016 deadline had passed and Mr. Short had received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter from Respondent.

33. Then, after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal and almost three months after the most recent “anticipated date” for DOE to respond had passed, DOE sent a fifteenth (15) Form Delay Letter granting itself yet another unilateral extension until

- July 12, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Second Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 7.

34. As of the date of this Petition, July 12, 2016 came and went with no response. This request has been outstanding for more than twenty (20) months.

III. THE THIRD AND FOURTH REQUESTS (F #11,061, F#11,068)

35. On March 4, 2015, Mr. Gonen requested the following records from the DOE (the “Third Request”): a copy of all e-mails sent and received by DOE Press Secretary Devora Kaye on March 3, 2015. A true and correct copy of the Third Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 8.

36. On March 6, 2015, Mr. Gonen requested the following records from the DOE (the “Fourth Request”): a copy of all e-mails sent and received by Ms. Kaye on March 2, 2015. A true and correct copy of the Fourth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 9.

37. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records for which a FOIL request has been received).

38. On March 11, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Gonen acknowledging receipt of the Third and Fourth Requests, and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response to both by April 7, 2015. A true and correct copy of the March 11, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.

39. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the requests were granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Gonen a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the requests to the following new anticipated dates:

- May 5, 2015,
- June 3, 2015,
- July 1, 2015,
- July 30, 2015,
- August 27, 2015,
- September 25, 2015,
- October 26, 2015,
- December 28, 2015,
- January 26, 2015 [sic],
- February 26, 2016,
- March 25, 2016,
- April 22, 2016, and

- May 20, 2016.

40. After Mr. Gonen filed his administrative appeal and DOE denied it, DOE sent three additional Form Delay Letters for a total of sixteen (16) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- June 20, 2016,
- July 19, 2016, and
- August 16, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Fourth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 11.

41. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for more than seventeen (17) months.

IV. THE FIFTH REQUEST (F#11,115)

42. On March 17, 2015, Mr. Gonen requested the following records from the DOE (the “Fifth Request”): a breakdown of the reason for/method of departure for each of the 291 educators/staffers in the ATR (“Absent Teacher Reserve”) pool that Mayor de Blasio has said repeatedly have been “moved” out of the schools system since April 2014, including the teacher’s name, location of last teaching assignment, and reason for/method of departure, as well as copies of any related stipulations of settlement or expedited 3020-A hearing reports. A true and correct copy of the Fifth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 12.

43. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records for which a FOIL request has been received, as well as records related to substitute teacher registries and terminations).

44. On March 13, 2015, four days prior to submitting the Fifth Request, Mr. Gonen emailed Jason Fink of the DOE's Press Office asking him to provide the same list he later requested in the first part of the Fifth Request. On March 17, 2015, Mr. Fink contacted Mr. Gonen to tell him, "So apparently you have a FOIL request in that seems to cover this." In response, Mr. Gonen wrote, "It's true. That doesn't preclude you from answering sooner. I'd cancel the foil if so." A true and correct copy of this e-mail chain is attached hereto as Exhibit 13. On March 20, 2015, Mr. Fink sent Mr. Gonen an e-mail containing a chart of the ATR exits with minimal detail in response to Mr. Gonen's earlier e-mail to the Press Office. This information was provided completely independent of the FOIL process. A true and correct copy of Mr. Fink's e-mail is attached hereto as Exhibit 14.

45. On March 24, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Gonen acknowledging receipt of his FOIL request, observing that a portion of the request had already been provided to Mr. Gonen, and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response to the remainder of the request by April 20, 2015. A true and correct copy of the March 24, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 15.

46. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Gonen a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- May 18, 2015,
- June 16, 2015,
- July 15, 2015,
- August 12, 2015,
- September 10, 2015,
- October 8, 2015,

- December 9, 2015,
- January 12, 2016,
- March 10, 2016,<sup>3</sup>
- April 7, 2016,
- May 5, 2016, and
- June 3, 2016.

47. After Mr. Gonen filed his administrative appeal and DOE denied it, DOE sent three additional Form Delay Letters for a total of fifteen (15) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- July 1, 2016,
- August 1, 2016, and
- August 29, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters and Mr. Gonen's e-mail exchange with Mr. Mantell about delays related to the Fifth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 16.

48. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for just under seventeen (17) months.

V. THE SIXTH REQUEST (F#11,479)

49. On July 6, 2015, Ms. Edelman requested the following records from the DOE (the "Sixth Request"): records on the re-scoring of the Regents exams in New York City schools including all records of requests by New York City superintendents and other personnel to re-score the January 2015 Regents exams. A true and correct copy of the Sixth Request is attached

<sup>3</sup> On February 22, 2016, well over a month after DOE's most recent anticipated date of response (January 12, 2016) had passed, Mr. Gonen wrote to Will Mantell of the DOE press office who sends all FOIL responses on behalf of Mr. Baranello, and asked "hey Will, have you sent anything since this notice? I don't see anything if you did," to which Mr. Mantell responded, "Doesn't look like it. I'll look into it tmo." This email exchange is included as part of Exhibit 16.

hereto as Exhibit 17.

50. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to Regents exam test results).

51. On July 13, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Ms. Edelman acknowledging receipt of her request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by August 10, 2015. A true and correct copy of the July 13, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 18.

52. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- September 8, 2015,
- November 4, 2015,
- December 7, 2015,
- January 8, 2016,
- February 8, 2016,
- March 25, 2016, and
- May 20, 2016.

True and Correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Sixth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 19.

53. On May 27, 2016, a week after the most recent “anticipated date” for DOE to respond had passed, ten days after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their appeal, and more than ten (10) months after she filed her initial request, Ms. Edelman received a response from Respondent, granting in part her request. Ms. Edelman was provided with a single excel spreadsheet. The amount of time it took to review and redact this automatically generated information – DOE’s stated reason for the delay other than the volume of other requests – took only as long as it would take to type the word “REDACTED” and paste it into three columns of a spreadsheet. A true and correct copy of the Response to the Sixth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 20.

54. As with the First Request, because DOE took so long to respond to the Sixth Request, the information sought in the request is now stale. As a result, Petitioners did not appeal this partial denial.

VI. THE SEVENTH REQUEST (F#11,571)

55. On August 12, 2015, Ms. Edelman requested the following records from the DOE (the “Seventh Request”): copies of reports completed or finalized since January 1, 2014 by the Office of Special Investigation (OSI). A true and correct copy of the Seventh Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 21.

56. Among its various responsibilities, the OSI investigates allegations of improper and unlawful behavior, including corporal punishment, verbal abuse against students, and various other forms of misconduct in the DOE. The DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to child abuse or maltreatment reports and related records and complaints about use of corporal punishment against students).

57. On August 19, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Ms. Edelman acknowledging receipt of her request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by September 17, 2015. A true and correct copy of the August 19, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 22.

58. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- October 16, 2015,
- November 16, 2015,
- December 16, 2015,
- January 20, 2016,
- February 18, 2016,
- April 14, 2016,
- May 12, 2016, and
- June 10, 2016.

59. After Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal and DOE denied it, DOE sent four additional Form Delay Letters for a total of twelve (12) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- July 11, 2016,
- July 25, 2016,
- August 8, 2016, and
- August 22, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Sixth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 23.

60. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for just under twelve (12) months.

VII. THE EIGHTH REQUEST (F#11,677)

61. On October 2, 2015, Mr. Short requested the following records from the DOE (the “Eighth Request”): payroll records for Renewal School Superintendent Amy Horowitz and all staff who work with Ms. Horowitz on the Renewal School initiative for 2015, or for the 2014-

2015 school year. A true and correct copy of the Eighth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 24.

62. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of payroll records). Further, one of the few exceptions to the FOIL’s rule that agencies do not need to create records to respond to a FOIL request is that every agency is required to create “a record setting forth the name, public office address, title and salary of every officer or employee of the agency.” Pub. Off. Law. § 87(3)(b).

63. On October 9, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Short acknowledging receipt of his request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by November 9, 2015. A true and correct copy of the October 9, 2014 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 25.

64. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Short a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- December 10, 2015,
- February 11, 2016,
- April 8, 2016, and
- May 6, 2016.

65. At the time Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal on May 18, 2016, the May 6, 2016 deadline had passed and Mr. Short had received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter from Respondent.

66. Nevertheless, after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal and a month after the most recent “anticipated date” for DOE to respond had passed, DOE sent three additional Form Delay Letters for a total of seven (7) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- July 5, 2016,
- August 2, 2016, and
- August 30, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Eighth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 26.

67. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for more than ten (10) months.

VIII. THE NINTH REQUEST (F#11,856)

68. On December 2, 2015, Ms. Edelman requested the following records from the DOE (the “Ninth Request”): records of disciplinary action involving school bus drivers and “matrons” or other such aides since December 1, 2014. A true and correct copy of the Ninth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 27.

69. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to disciplinary proceedings).

70. On December 8, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Ms. Edelman acknowledging receipt of her request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by January 11, 2016. A true and correct copy of the December 8, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 28.

71. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- February 9, 2016,
- March 9, 2016,

- April 6, 2016,
- May 4, 2016, and
- June 2, 2016.

72. Then, after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal, DOE sent five additional Form Delay Letters for a total of ten (10) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- June 30, 2016,
- July 15, 2016,
- July 22, 2016,
- July 29, 2016, and
- August 12, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Ninth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 29.

73. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for more than eight (8) months.

IX. THE TENTH REQUEST (F#11,858)

74. Also on December 2, 2015, Ms. Edelman requested the following records from the DOE (the “Tenth Request”): records detailing weapons found or confiscated in city schools in the 2013-2014 school year, the 2014-2015 school year, and the current school year. A true and correct copy of the Tenth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 30.

75. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to disciplinary proceedings).

76. Ms. Edelman had previously requested and been provided with this exact information by DOE for prior year's reporting. Recognizing that this data is readily available to Respondent, in an effort to expedite processing of her request, Ms. Edelman attached to her request the similar records DOE released to her in March 2012. A true and correct copy of the DOE's Response to Ms. Edelman's previous FOIL request and the two spreadsheets provided (one for each school year) are attached hereto as Exhibit 31.

77. On December 8, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Ms. Edelman acknowledging receipt of her request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by January 11, 2016. A true and correct copy of the December 8, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 32.

78. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- February 9, 2016,
- March 9, 2016,
- April 6, 2016,
- May 4, 2016, and
- June 2, 2016.

79. Then, after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal, DOE sent five additional Form Delay Letters for a total of ten (10) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- June 30, 2016,
- July 15, 2016,
- July 22, 2016,
- July 29, 2016, and

- August 12, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Tenth Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 33.

80. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for more than eight (8) months.

X. THE ELEVENTH REQUEST (F#11,894)

81. On December 16, 2015, Mr. Short requested the following records from the DOE (the “Eleventh Request”): attendance records for all DOE principals in the 2013-2014 school year, 2014-2015 school year, and in 2015 between September 9, 2015 and December 15, 2015. A true and correct copy of the Eleventh Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 34.

82. The DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating to employee absences or accruals, employee’s time records covering leave, absences, hours worked and scheduling, vacation schedules, report of absence and request for leave without pay).

83. On December 22, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Short acknowledging receipt of his request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by January 26, 2016. A true and correct copy of the December 22, 2015 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 35.

84. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Short a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- March 23, 2016, and
- April 20, 2016.

85. At the time Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal on May 18, 2016, the April 20, 2016 deadline had passed and Mr. Short had received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter from Respondent.

86. Nevertheless, after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal and a month after the most recent “anticipated date” for DOE to respond had passed, DOE sent three additional Form Delay Letters for a total of five (5) Form Delay Letters, granting itself further unilateral extensions until

- June 16, 2016,
- July 15, 2016, and
- August 12, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters related to the Eleventh Request are attached hereto as Exhibit 36.

87. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for more than seven (7) months.

XI. THE TWELFTH REQUEST (F#12,015)

88. On January 25, 2016, Ms. Edelman requested the following records from the DOE (the “Twelfth Request”): records of all procurement card (P-card) expenses by DOE personnel since August 21, 2014. A true and correct copy of the Twelfth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 37.

89. DOE is required to maintain these records. See NYCRR tit. 8, Ch. IV, App. I (requiring retention of records relating procurements of goods and services and credit card expenditures).

90. As with the Tenth Request, Ms. Edelman had previously requested and been provided with this exact information for the period from September 1, 2013 to August 21, 2014.

Again, in an effort to expedite the processing of her request, Ms. Edelman attached to her request DOE's response to her prior request. A true and correct copy of the DOE's Response to Ms. Edelman's previous FOIL request along with a pdf of the first 44 lines of the spreadsheet produced by DOE is attached hereto as Exhibit 38.

91. On January 28, 2016, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Ms. Edelman acknowledging receipt of her request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by February 26, 2016. A true and correct copy of the January 28, 2016 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 39.

92. Instead of receiving a determination of whether the request was granted or denied, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman a series of Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions of time to grant or deny the request to the following new anticipated dates:

- March 25, 2015 [sic],
- April 22, 2015 [sic], and
- May 20, 2015 [sic].

93. Then, after Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman filed their administrative appeal, DOE sent six additional Form Delay Letters for a total of nine (9) Form Delay Letters granting itself further unilateral extensions until:

- June 20, 2015 [sic],
- July 19, 2016,
- July 26, 2016,
- August 2, 2016,
- August 8, 2016, and
- August 15, 2016.

True and correct copies of the Form Delay Letters are attached hereto as Exhibit 40.

94. As of the date of this Petition, this request has been outstanding for more than six (6) months.

XII. PETITIONERS' EFFORTS TO GET DOE TO GRANT OR DENY THEIR REQUESTS

95. Over the course of this extended period of delay, Petitioners did not sit idly by.

96. On November 17, 2015, frustrated with DOE's dilatory tactics, Ms. Edelman e-mailed Respondent, contesting its practice of sending multiple "form letters delaying compliance with no specific reason." Specifically, she wrote, "You say the documents will be forthcoming the following month, but I have no confidence that you will send anything other than another form letter with another delay." Ms. Edelman received no response to her e-mail. A true and correct copy of Ms. Edelman's November 17, 2015 email is attached hereto as Exhibit 41.

97. Further, on both March 31, 2016 and April 14, 2016, counsel for the Post sent letters to DOE requesting that it respond to the Post's requests and to inform it that the DOE pattern and practice of delays was unreasonable and contrary to law. In each of these letters, the Post stated that if the requested records were not provided in a timely fashion, the Post would have no choice but to consider DOE's excessive and repeated delays a constructive denial. Neither Mr. Baranello nor anyone at DOE responded to the Post's letters. A true and correct copy of the Post's March 31, 2016 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 42. A true and correct copy of the Post's April 14, 2016 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 43.

XIII. PETITIONERS' ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS OF THE CONSTRUCTIVE DENIALS OF THE TWELVE REQUESTS

98. As of May 2016, Petitioners had yet to receive a substantive response to any of the twelve FOIL requests that form the substance of this Petition.

99. Accordingly, on May 18, 2016, Ms. Edelman and Mr. Short timely submitted an administrative appeal of the constructive denials of the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Requests. A true and correct copy of Mr. Short's and Ms. Edelman's May 18, 2016 Appeal is attached hereto as Exhibit 44.

100. By letter dated June 6, 2016 from DOE First Deputy General Counsel Judy Nathan, the DOE denied Mr. Short's and Ms. Edelman's administrative appeal out of hand. The DOE held that the Requests had not been constructively denied because "according to Chancellor's Regulation D-110(VIII)(A), a request may be deemed constructively denied only where a requestor 'is neither granted nor denied access to records within the time limits set forth above [in section V(VI)] or in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s)...' (emphasis added)." Further, DOE observed that Mr. Baranello had "properly determined that additional time was required" to respond because of "the total number of requests as well as the extensive and voluminous nature of some of the items requested" and that "review and redaction of the requested records . . . are time-consuming."

101. Ms. Nathan also held that the Sixth Request was moot because on May 27, 2016, a week after the most recent "anticipated date" for DOE to respond had passed, and more than ten (10) months after she filed her initial request, Ms. Edelman received a response from Respondent, granting in part her request. Ms. Edelman was provided with a single excel spreadsheet. The amount of time it took to review and redact this automatically generated information – DOE's stated reason for the delay other than the volume of other requests – took only as long as it would take to type the word "REDACTED" and paste it into three columns of a spreadsheet. See supra, Exhibit 20.

102. Although Ms. Nathan denied Mr. Short's and Ms. Edelman's appeal, she directed DOE to respond to their requests "as expeditiously as possible." A true and correct copy of DOE's June 6, 2016 Denial Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 45.

103. Similarly, on May 24, 2016, Mr. Gonen timely submitted two administrative appeals of the constructive denials of the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Requests. A true and correct copy of Mr. Gonen's May 24, 2016 Appeal from the constructive denial of the Third and Fourth Requests is attached hereto as Exhibit 46. A true and correct copy of Mr. Gonen's May 24, 2016 Appeal from the constructive denial of the Fifth Request is attached hereto as Exhibit 47.

104. By letter dated June 8, 2016 from DOE First Deputy General Counsel Judy Nathan, the DOE denied Mr. Gonen's administrative appeals out of hand. As with Ms. Edelman's and Mr. Short's appeal, the DOE held that Mr. Gonen's requests had not been constructively denied because "according to Chancellor's Regulation D-110(VIII)(A), a request may be deemed constructively denied only where a requestor 'is neither granted nor denied access to records within the time limits set forth above [in section V(VI)] or in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s)...' (emphasis added)." Further, DOE observed that Mr. Baranello had "properly determined that additional time was required" to respond because of "the extensiveness of your various request items," and that "review and redaction of the requested records . . . are time-consuming." A true and correct copy of DOE's June 8, 2016 Denial Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 48.

105. On July 19, 2016, in response to a request from Petitioners, Kristin O'Neill, Assistant Director of the Committee on Open Government, issued an advisory opinion regarding Petitioners' requests and whether the Chancellor's Regulations are consistent with FOIL and the Implementing Regulations. The Committee concluded that "there is no provision in the statute for repeated extensions," and an "agency is not permitted to establish the right to repeated extensions via regulation, where such right does not exist in statute or in the Committee's own regulations." Further, the Committee concluded that it was reasonable for Petitioners to conclude that the receipt of repeated extension notices and failure of DOE to determine Petitioners' rights of access constituted constructive denials. A true and correct copy of the Advisory Opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit 49.

XIV. OTHER EVIDENCE OF A PATTERN AND PRACTICE OF DELAY

106. On January 13, 2016, Ms. O'Neill issued an advisory opinion at the request of Nairobi Vives, Esq. whose FOIL request to Empire State Development had been similarly delayed by numerous unilateral extensions. There, the Committee also observed that "there is no provision in the statute for repeated extensions," and opined that after three unilateral extensions by the agency, it was reasonable for the requester to construe the delay in responding as a constructive denial. A true and correct copy of the Advisory Opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit 50.

107. In April 2013, the then-Public Advocate For the City of New York, Mayor Bill de Blasio, issued a report titled "Breaking Through Bureaucracy: Evaluating Government Responsiveness to Information Requests in New York City." In the report, the Mayor gave the DOE a "D" rating for its handling of FOIL requests in general and an "F" for its response time. Further, the Mayor stated that the failure of an agency to send a "yes" or "no" response six months after the initial request is "unacceptable and represent de-facto denials . . . [and] undermines the spirit of the Freedom of Information Law." A true and correct copy of the Report is attached hereto as Exhibit 51.

108. On July 28, 2015, New York Post reporter, Carl Campanile submitted a request for copies of reports completed by the DOE OSI that substantiated claims of test or grade tampering/inflation or other cheating in public schools for the 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 school year. This request is nearly identical to – albeit narrower than – the Seventh Request at issue on this petition (OSI reports completed or finalized since January 1, 2014). See supra ¶ 49. On August 4, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Campanile acknowledging receipt of his request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by September 1, 2015. Since then, Mr. Baranello sent eleven (11) Form Delay Letters granting DOE unilateral extensions until September 30, 2015, October 29, 2015, January 4, 2016, February 2, 2016, March 2, 2016, March 30, 2016, April 27, 2016, May 25, 2016, June 23, 2016, July 22, 2016, and finally August 19, 2016. This request has now been outstanding for more than a year without a response. While this request is not at issue in the instant Article 78 Petition, it demonstrates further that DOE is engaged in a pattern and practice of unreasonably delaying responding to FOIL requests. A true and correct copy of the initial request, acknowledgment letter and subsequent Form Delay Letters are attached hereto as Exhibit 52.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(DECLARATORY JUDGMENT – DOE LACKS AUTHORITY TO ISSUE REGULATIONS IN CONTRAVENTION OF N.Y. PUB. OFFICERS LAW § 84 ET SEQ.)

109. Petitioners repeat and reallege Paragraphs 1 through 108 above, and incorporate such allegations as if fully set forth herein.

110. The public’s right of access to government information is governed by the Freedom of Information Law (“FOIL”), N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 84 et seq.

111. FOIL requires that “Each agency shall promulgate rules and regulations, in conformity with this article and applicable rules and regulations promulgated . . . pursuant to such general rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the committee on open government in conformity with the provisions of this article”. N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 87(1)(b).

112. With respect to the timing of determining whether to grant or deny a request, FOIL requires that within five business days of the receipt of a request for records, an agency must “make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a) (emphasis added).

113. Further, in the event an agency fails to determine whether to grant or deny a request within a reasonable time period, both FOIL and the Implementing Regulations make clear that it constitutes an appealable denial – i.e., a “constructive denial.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(4)(a) (“Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of subdivision three of this section shall constitute a denial.”); 21 N.Y.C.R.R. § 1401.5(e) (“failure to comply with the time limitations . . . shall constitute a denial of a request that may be appealed”).

114. In addition to the plain language of the FOIL, the Implementing Regulations require that if an agency is unable to grant or deny a request within five business days, that it must include an approximate date in the acknowledgment letter if it anticipates disclosing records in twenty days or fewer, or a date certain if beyond twenty days. 21 N.Y.C.R.R. § 1401.5(c)(3). The Implementing Regulations also provide that “failure to comply with the time limitations . . . shall constitute a denial of a request that may be appealed.” 21 N.Y.C.R.R. § 1401.5(e).

115. Neither FOIL nor its Implementing Regulations authorizes agencies to take repeated extensions or afford an agency the option of repeatedly providing “a new reasonable approximate date for the agency’s response” as DOE contends. See Exhibits 45, 48.

116. Nevertheless, Chancellors Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) purports to authorize DOE to issue “extension letter(s)” thereby contravening the express language of the FOIL and the Committee on Open Government’s Implementing Regulations. Specifically, Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) provides that “A requester who is neither granted nor denied access to records within the time limits set forth above or in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s) may consider the request constructively denied and may appeal such denial in accordance with the procedures set forth below.” (emphasis added)

117. Permitting DOE to send unlimited extension letters without the specter of a constructive denial, as opposed to providing a single reasonable “approximate date” for when it will grant or deny a FOIL request, permits the agency to delay responses in perpetuity, frustrates the public’s right to know, and upends the system of administrative appeals and judicial review as set forth in the FOIL.

118. Chancellors Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) is inconsistent with the language of N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 89(3)(a) and its underlying purpose as it purports to permit DOE to unreasonably delay and effectively prevent access to government information without judicial review merely by sending monthly letters unilaterally extending its time to grant or deny FOIL requests.

119. DOE acknowledges that it applies Chancellors Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) so as to permit it to send repeated extension letters for months on end provided each letter includes “a new reasonable approximate date” for the agency to respond.

120. DOE also acknowledges that Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) deems a request constructively denied only when the request is neither granted nor denied “within the time limits set forth . . . in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s) . . .”

121. Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) is plainly an invalid usurpation of legislative authority and avoidance of judicial review.

122. Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) has caused, and continues to cause, immediate and irreparable harm to the rights guaranteed to Petitioners and to the public at large under FOIL, Article 1, Section 8 of the New York State Constitution, and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

123. The validity or invalidity of Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) presents a ‘substantial or novel [issue], likely to recur and capable of evading review.’” Hearst Corp. v. City of Albany, 88 A.D.3d 1130, 1131 (3d Dep’t 2011) (alteration in original) (quoting City of New York v. Maul, 14 N.Y.3d 499, 507 (2010)). It is likely that the issue presented here will recur in the future, as the DOE maintains that Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) entitles it to issue serial extension letters, ad infinitum, in response to FOIL requests.

124. Petitioners have no means to challenge Respondents extended, unilateral, and unreasonable delays. Petitioners have no adequate remedy at law.

125. Accordingly, Petitioners are entitled to a judgment declaring that Chancellors Regulation D-110 is unlawful and/or is inconsistent with N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 84 et seq. and is, accordingly, invalid.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(DECLARATORY JUDGMENT – DOE’S PRACTICE OF SENDING REPEATED FORM DELAY LETTERS IS INHERENTLY UNREASONABLE AND CAUSE FOR A CONSTRUCTIVE DENIAL UNDER N.Y. PUB. OFFICERS LAW § 84 ET SEQ.)

126. Petitioners repeat and reallege Paragraphs 1 through 125 above, and incorporate such allegations as if fully set forth herein.

127. The public’s right of access to government information is governed by the Freedom of Information Law (“FOIL”), N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 84 et seq.

128. With respect to the timing of determining whether to grant or deny a request, FOIL requires that within five business days of the receipt of a request for records, an agency must “make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a) (emphasis added).

129. Further, in the event an agency fails to determine whether to grant or deny a request within a reasonable time period, both FOIL and the Implementing Regulations make clear that it constitutes an appealable denial – i.e., a “constructive denial.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(4)(a) (“Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of subdivision three of this section shall constitute a denial.”); 21 N.Y.C.R.R. § 1401.5(e) (“failure to comply with the time limitations . . . shall constitute a denial of a request that may be appealed”).

130. Neither FOIL nor its Implementing Regulations authorizes agencies to take repeated extensions or afford an agency the option of repeatedly providing “a new reasonable approximate date for the agency’s response” as DOE contends. See Exhibits 45, 48.

131. DOE has taken the position that sending as many as sixteen separate Form Delay Letters and failing to determine whether to grant or deny a request for as many as twenty-one (21) months is reasonable under the circumstances of a request that calls for the production of a single document.

132. DOE has also taken the position that it may send as many Form Delay Letters as it wants without triggering a constructive denial so long as it sends an extension letter within the time limit set forth by its prior extension letter.

133. DOE’s interpretation of Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) and the FOIL in general has caused, and continues to cause, immediate and irreparable harm to the rights guaranteed to Petitioners and to the public at large under FOIL, Article 1, Section 8 of the New York State Constitution, and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

134. Whether it is reasonable for DOE to take numerous unilateral extensions of its time to determine whether to grant or deny a request presents a ‘substantial or novel [issue], likely to recur and capable of evading review.’’ Hearst Corp. v. City of Albany, 88 A.D.3d 1130, 1131 (3d Dep’t 2011) (alteration in original) (quoting City of New York v. Maul, 14 N.Y.3d 499, 507 (2010)). It is likely that the issue presented here will recur in the future, as the DOE maintains that its actions of sending unilateral extension letters for up to twenty one (21) months if not longer for requests that call for the production of a single document is inherently reasonable.

135. Petitioners have no means to challenge Respondents extended, unilateral, and unreasonable delays. Petitioners have no adequate remedy at law.

136. Accordingly, Petitioners are entitled to a judgment declaring that Respondents’ interpretation and application of Chancellors Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) authorizing it to send repeated unilateral extension letters is unlawful and/or is inconsistent with N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 84 et seq.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(ARTICLE 78 PETITION – DIRECTING DOE TO PRODUCE RECORDS RESPONSIVE TO OUTSTANDING REQUESTS)

137. Petitioners repeat and reallege Paragraphs 1 through 136 above, and incorporate such allegations as if fully set forth herein.

138. Article 78 of New York’s Civil Practice Law & Rules is the appropriate method for review of agency determinations concerning FOIL requests.

139. The Requests reasonably described the requested records.

140. The information requested is of significant interest to the general public.

141. DOE has engaged in a pattern and practice of failing to comply with its obligations under New York Public Officers Law Section 84 et seq., and Respondents’ Chancellor’s Regulation D-110 by routinely ignoring statutory deadlines, constructively denying requests and ultimately failing to disclose to Petitioners the requested documents to which they are entitled.

142. The DOE's failure to perform its duties violates the letter and spirit of FOIL, which provides for open disclosure to the public.

143. So long as the DOE maintains its pattern and practice of non-compliance with FOIL, Petitioners are profoundly hindered in their ability to report on the government – the “public’s business” – and hold the DOE accountable for its practices. The DOE has in its trust the City’s children and how it executes that trust is of supreme public concern. See Pub. Off. Law § 84.

144. DOE's actions have caused, and continue to cause, immediate and irreparable harm to the rights guaranteed to Petitioners and to the public at large under FOIL, Article 1, Section 8 of the New York State Constitution, and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

145. Petitioners have exhausted their administrative remedies and have not obtained the requested records.

146. At least with respect to four of the twelve FOIL requests at issue (the First, Second, Eighth, and Eleventh Requests), Respondents failed to grant or deny access to records even within the time limits set forth in their extension letters. Accordingly, even crediting Respondents' own interpretation of the Chancellor's Regulation, these four requests at a minimum have been constructively denied and are ripe for decision.

147. To the extent DOE claims as it did in its June 6, 2016 and June 8, 2016 denials of Petitioners' administrative appeals that Petitioners have failed to exhaust their administrative remedies because DOE has not yet granted or denied their Requests, the exhaustion of administrative remedies under DOE's conception thereof would be futile since DOE repeatedly and unreasonably delays making any decision granting or denying their requests.

148. As a result of the foregoing, DOE has violated FOIL.

149. Petitioners have no adequate remedy other than this proceeding, and no previous application for the relief requested herein has been made to the court

PRIOR APPLICATION

150. No application has been made for the relief requested herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court grant judgment:

- (1) Declaring that Chancellor's Regulation Chancellors Regulation D-110(VIII)(A) is unlawful and/or is inconsistent with N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 84 et seq. and is, accordingly, invalid;
- (2) Declaring that the DOE's practice of sending repeated Form Delay Letters is inherently unreasonable and that determinations in its administrative appeal decisions that it may continue to deny access to public records because it has re-issued serial unilateral extensions violates its obligations under FOIL, N.Y. Pub. Officers Law § 84 et seq.;
- (3) Granting Petitioners' Article 78 Petition, finding that DOE has constructively denied Petitioners' requests, that Petitioners have exhausted their administrative remedies, and directing DOE to produce all disclosable records responsive to Petitioners' outstanding requests within twenty (20) days of the Court's order;
- (4) Awarding Petitioners their costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Public Officers Law § 89(4)(c); and
- (5) Awarding Petitioners such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dear Mr. Short:

This letter concerns the above-referenced Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request. Pursuant to section VI.B of Chancellor's Regulation D-110, due to the volume and complexity of requests we receive and process, and to determine whether any records or portions thereof will be subject to redactions permitted under Public Officers Law §87(2), additional time is required to respond substantively to your request. Accordingly, a response is currently anticipated by April 15, 2016.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Baranello

List of teachers taken 11-20 days off

Dear Mr. Short:

This letter is in final response to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request referenced above. Records that respond to your request are attached, to the extent that your request is "reasonably described" pursuant to Public Officers Law §89(3)(a); i.e., to the extent that data can be extracted from a computer storage system with reasonable effort. Access is denied to portions of records for the following reasons.

POL §87(2)(b) permits an agency to deny access to records or portions thereof that if disclosed would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy under Public Officers Law §89(2). Release of employee names in this context would constitute a disclosure of an employee work history pursuant to Public Officers Law §89(2)(i). In addition, as your request references the records of the DOE's Medical Unit, release of these records would be an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of the individuals in question. Disclosure would also be prohibited pursuant to Public Officers Law (POL) §87(2)(a), which permits an agency to deny access to records or portions thereof that are specifically exempted from disclosure by state or federal statute. In this case, disclosure of records is prohibited by HIPAA.

Any person denied access to a record may appeal the decision in writing within thirty days. Please state a specific ground for appeal and include copies of the initial request and the denial. Appeals should be sent to: Charity Guerra, Acting General Counsel, c/o Office of Legal Services, New York City Department of Education, 52 Chambers Street – Room 308, NY, NY 10007, FOIL@schools.nyc.gov.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Baranello

Dear FOIL Officer:

Under the provisions of the New York Freedom of Information Law, Article 6 of the Public Officers Law, I am requesting a copy of all emails sent and received by Devora Kaye on March 3, 2015.

If there are any fees for copying the records requested, please inform me before filling the request. Note that I'm making the request as a representative of the news media affiliated with The New York Post, and that this request is made as part of news gathering and not for a commercial use.

Dear Mr. Gonen:

On March 5 & 6, 2015 the Office of Legal Services of the NYC Department of Education (DOE) received your Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) requests, dated March 4 & 6, 2015, and assigned them a FOIL reference number of F11,061 and F11,068. Please include this FOIL reference number on all subsequent correspondence.

A search for responsive records will be conducted. We anticipate providing you with a response by April 7, 2015.

Dear FOIL Officer:

Under the provisions of the New York Freedom of Information Law, Article 6 of the Public Officers Law, I am requesting a breakdown of the reason for/method of departure for each of the 291 educators/staffers in the ATR pool that Mayor de Blasio has said repeatedly have been "moved" out of the schools system since April 2014. Such a list would include: teacher's name, location of last teaching assignment, and reason for/method of departure (which may include: severance pay and how much was paid, retirement, termination following a 3020-A hearing, other type of termination, stipulation of settlement, other reasons). I feel it necessary to say that it's a shame your press office can't fulfill its responsibility to the public and provide said information without the necessity of a FOIL request, but I've been asking for this information since Feb. 25 and haven't gotten so much as a courtesy acknowledgment that someone is working on securing the information.

Additionally, I am seeking a copy of any such stipulation of settlement or expedited 3020-A hearing report that led to departures of any of the 291 ATRs to date.

If there are any fees for copying the records requested, please inform me before filling the request. Note that I'm making the request as a representative of the news media affiliated with The New York Post, and that this request is made as part of news gathering and not for a commercial use.

As you know, the Freedom of Information Law requires that an agency respond to a request within five business days of receipt of a request. Therefore, I would appreciate a response as soon as possible and look forward to hearing from you shortly.

If for any reason any portion of my request is denied, please inform me of the reasons for the denial in writing and provide the name and address of the person or body to whom an appeal should be directed.

Thank you.

The chart below represents the breakdown of ATR ‘exits’ from last April through this past February. Some important caveats/additions:

- This does not include teachers/faculty who left the ATR for employment within the school system
- The yellow highlights indicate what you could call ‘involuntary’ exits
- The green highlights indicate retirements/resignations that occurred while a teacher was in the middle of a 3020-a process, so even though their exit was voluntary, as part of it they had to settle their case with a written agreement to resign or retire as of a certain date. Not the same as a pure retirement/resignation.
- As the Mayor and Chancellor have indicated, the retirements/resignations (not highlighted) are not all necessarily of the garden variety either. We have been working closely with principals at schools where ATRs are serving and in the pool more broadly to counsel people out. It’s not possible to attribute cause in these cases, but be aware counseling likely played a factor in some.

Category	Exits

Missed 2+ Interviews	10
Retirement	100
Resignation	18
Irrevocable Retirement/Resignation	53
Probationary Discontinuance	2
Other Termination	9
Total	289

Dear Mr. Gonen:

On March 16, 2015 the Office of Legal Services of the NYC Department of Education (DOE) received your Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request, dated March 16, 2015, and assigned it a FOIL reference number of F11,115. Please include this FOIL reference number on all subsequent correspondence.

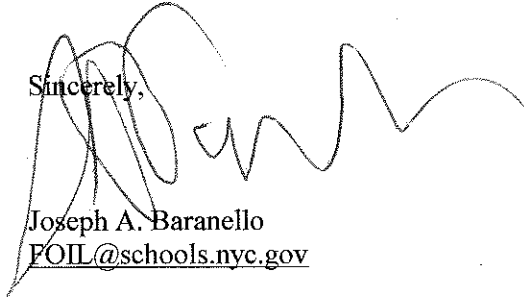

With respect to the first paragraph of your request, it is my understanding that certain data that responds to your request has already been provided to you. To the extent that you seek additional information, please let me know by April 20, 2015, or this portion of your request will be deemed to have been withdrawn.

With respect to the second paragraph of your request, for "a copy of any such stipulation of settlement or expedited 3020-[a] hearing report that led to departures of any of the 291 ATRs to date," a search for responsive records will be conducted. We anticipate providing you with a response by April 20, 2015.

In addition, if responsive records are located and identified for release, you will be notified of the cost of reproduction. At that time, please make your check or money order payable to the New York City Department of Education and include the FOIL reference number on the instrument of payment. Please be advised that Public Officers Law § 87(1)(b)(iii) permits the DOE to charge a fee of 25¢ per photocopy not in excess of nine inches by fourteen inches, or the actual cost of reproducing any other record in accordance with Public Officers Law § 87(1)(c).

Any person denied access to a record may appeal the decision in writing within thirty days. Please state a specific ground for appeal and include copies of the initial request and the denial. Re-scored Regents Exams information

Dear Ms. Edelman:

This letter is in final response to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request referenced above. Records are attached that respond to your request for a copy of the report sent to the New York State Education Department (NYSED). Access is denied to portions of this report and, to the extent your request is reasonably described pursuant to Public Officers Law §89(3)(a), to additional records in their entirety, for the following reasons.

Public Officers Law §87(2)(a) permits an agency to deny access to records or portions thereof that are specifically exempted from disclosure by state or federal statute. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. §1232g (together with its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. Part 99, FERPA) prohibits disclosure of personally identifiable information constituting or derived from education records, absent consent of the parent or eligible student, or the existence of a specifically enumerated exception in FERPA that would permit non-consensual disclosure. See 34 C.F.R. §99.3, §99.30 and §99.31. Accordingly, access is denied to direct and indirect identifiers, including student names and identification numbers, and to “(f) [o]ther information that, alone or in combination, is linked or linkable to a specific student that would allow a reasonable person in the school community, who does not have personal knowledge of the relevant circumstances, to identify the student with reasonable certainty.” See 34 C.F.R. §99.3.

Public Officers Law §87(2)(b) permits an agency to deny access to records or portions thereof that if disclosed would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy under Public Officers Law §89(2). Accordingly, certain records or portions thereof that you have requested could, if disclosed, be used to identify individual parents or students, and reveal other information that is private. Such a violation of privacy is unwarranted, and consequently, access to student names, parent names, home addresses, phone numbers, witness statements, and other private information about students is denied.

Public Officers Law §87(2)(g) also permits an agency to deny access to records or portions thereof that are inter-agency or intra-agency materials which are not statistical or factual tabulations or data, instructions to staff that affect the public, final agency policy or determinations, or certain external audits. Accordingly, access is denied to records and portions thereof constituting opinions, suggestions, recommendations, advice, ideas, plans, impressions, exhortations and other information not containing or constituting statistical or factual tabulations or data, instructions to staff that affect the public, or final agency policy or determinations.

Department of Education

Carmen Fariña, Chancellor

Any person denied access to a record may appeal the decision in writing within thirty days. Please state a specific ground for appeal and include copies of the initial request and the denial. Appeals should be sent to: Charity Guerra, Acting General Counsel, c/o Office of Legal Services, New York City Department of Education, 52 Chambers Street – Room 308, NY, NY 10007, FOIL@schools.nyc.gov.

Dear Mr. Baranello,

Under the Freedom of Information Law, I request records of disciplinary action taken against school bus drivers and "matrons" or other such personnel since Dec. 1, 2014.

The records should show all suspensions and dismissals of drivers and matrons/aides by the Department of Education and/or its Office of Pupil Transportation. The records should state the names of the employees, and the disciplinary action taken.

Importantly, the records should also include reports with detailed findings by a DOE investigation of any wrongdoing.

I request that these records be provided electronically.

Subject: FOIL request
To: Baranello Joseph <JBaranello3@schools.nyc.gov>

Dear Mr. Baranello,

Under the Freedom of Information Law, I request records detailing weapons found/confiscated in city schools in the 2013-14 school year, the 2014-15 school year, and the current school year.

Attached are similar records released under a FOIL request in March 2012.

The Excel sheet provided lists the name and code number of each school, whether the weapon was found with or without scanning, and the number and descriptions of the weapons confiscated.

This information was/is already compiled by the DOE for the New York State Department of Education for its reports on violent and disruptive incidents.

Therefore, I see no reason why this request should not be fulfilled promptly.

Sincerely,

--

Susan Edelman

Dear Ms. Edelman:

This letter concerns the above-referenced Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request. Pursuant to section VI.B of Chancellor's Regulation D-110, due to the volume and complexity of requests we receive and process, and to determine whether any records or portions thereof will be subject to redactions permitted under Public Officers Law §87(2), additional time is required to respond substantively to your request. Accordingly, a response is currently anticipated by August 2, 2016.

Sincerely,

Hello Mr. Baranello and Ms. Jackson-Chase,

This FOIL request was filed on August 12, yet I continue to get form letters delaying compliance with no specific reason.

Why should it take at least six months?

You say the documents will be forthcoming the following month, but I have no confidence that you will send anything other than another form letter with another delay.

Re: #F11,479; #F11,571; #F11,593; #F12,015

Dear Mr. Baranello:

Thank you so much for your help on the PROSE plan FOIL. I am writing to follow up on our outstanding FOIL requests that have been pending for many months.

F# 11,479. On July 6, 2015, the Post submitted a FOIL request for Re-scored Regents Exam Information. Your most recent communication of March 10, 2016, indicates DOE will respond by March 25, 2016, eight months following the request. No response has been received. No production was made on March 25, but instead Ms. Edelman received a letter further delaying the response until April 22, 2016.

F# 11,571. On August 12, 2015, the Post made a FOIL request for reports completed or finalized since January 1, 2014 by the Office of Special Investigations. By letter dated March 17, 2016, you advised that a response will be coming April 14, 2016, seven months after the request.

F# 12,015. On August 21, 2014, the Post made a FOIL request for P – card expenses. By letter dated March 25, 2016, citing again the “volume and complexity,” DOE again delayed, until April 22, 2016, its response to a very straightforward request. These are credit card expenses by principals and other officials that should be readily maintained on a spreadsheet and easily retrieved and produced.

F# 11,593. Finally, on March 25, 2016, production was finally made in response to the Post’s request for information about Principal Bonuses for the school year 2014 – 2015. Notably, notwithstanding that the Post’s request had been outstanding for seven months, the information had already been produced to Chalkboard, which ran a story on March 18, 2016. We sincerely hope that DOE is not purposefully disfavoring and delaying requests by the Post, as this incident suggests. Any disparate treatment would violate the First Amendment and Article I, Section 8 of the New York State Constitution.

As you well know, New York law does not permit unreasonable delays of the sort indulged by the DOE here. The purpose of FOIL is to "promote open government and public accountability" with the law imposing "a broad duty on government to make its records available to the public." Matter of Tuck-It-Away Assocs., LP v. Empire State Dev. Corp., 54 A.D. 3d 154, 162, 861 N.Y.S.2d 51 (1st Dep't 2008). "When faced with a FOIL request, an agency must either disclose the record sought, deny the request and claim a specific exemption to disclosure, or certify that it does not possess the requested document and that it could not be located after a diligent search." Matter of Beechwood Restorative Care Ctr. v. Signor, 5 N.Y.3d 435, 440-41 (2005).

FOIL grants an agency just five days to acknowledge a request and provide "a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied." N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a) (emphasis added). In the absence of a timely response, the requesting party may deem the failure to respond a denial and commence an Article 78 proceeding for review of such denial. Matter of New York Times Co. v. City of N.Y. Police Dep't, 103 A.D.3d 405, 959 N.Y.S.2d 171 (1st Dep't 2013); Matter of Miller v. N.Y. State Dep't of Transp., 58 A.D.3d 981, 983, 871 N.Y.S.2d 489 (3rd Dep't 2009); Matter of Goyer v. N.Y. State Dep't of Envtl. Conservation, 12 Misc.3d 261, 813 N.Y.S.2d 628 (Sup. Ct., Albany Cnty. 2005). Moreover, FOIL provides for shifting of attorneys' fees when "the agency failed to respond to a request or appeal within the statutory time." N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(4)(c)(ii).

There can be no doubt that the requested records are subject to FOIL, and that the five-day deadline has long since passed, notwithstanding DOE's most recent letters claiming extensions. We consider DOE's repeated delays and unilateral open-ended extensions of time to be patently unreasonable given the nature of the records requested. If the requested records are not produced by no later than April 22, 2016 (the most recent deadline provided by DOE), the Post reserves all rights and remedies, including considering DOE's excessive delays a constructive denial, bringing an Article 78 proceeding, and seeking attorneys' fees.

Please feel free to call me to discuss these FOIL requests and the process more generally so we can avoid any unnecessary delay and disputes.

Re: #F11,677, #F11,856; #F11,858

Dear Mr. Baranello:

I write on behalf of the New York Post in connection with three more outstanding requests for information under the New York Freedom of Information Law ("FOIL"). The Post objects to unreasonable delay of the Department of Education ("DOE") in responding to its requests under FOIL. As these requests have been pending for many months, I urge the DOE to avoid litigation over its constructive denial of the requests by producing the requested documents as soon as possible. The outstanding requests are as follows:

F# 11,677. On October 2, 2015, Aaron Short of the Post made a FOIL request for payroll records for Renewal School Superintendent Amy Horowitz and all staff who work with Ms. Horowitz on the Renewal School initiative for 2015, or for the 2014-15 school year. Your most recent communication of April 8, 2016 indicates that a response to the request is "currently anticipated by May 6, 2016." This letter is just the latest in a series of form letters delaying production of these records month after month.

F# 11,856. On December 2, 2015, Susan Edelman of the Post made a FOIL request for records detailing weapons found/confiscated in city schools in the 2013-14 school year, the 2014-15 school year, and the current school year. As Ms. Edelman indicated in her request, the DOE released nearly identical records in March 2012 that it maintained on an Excel spreadsheet. Thus, similar information for the time periods requested should be readily available for release to the Post. Instead, your most recent communication of April 6, 2016 states that DOE anticipates responding to the request by May 4, 2016.” As with Mr. Short’s request, the DOE has sent multiple letters just like this one granting itself unilateral extensions to respond.

F# 11,858. Also on December 2, 2015, Ms. Edelman submitted a FOIL request on behalf of the Post for records of disciplinary action involving school bus drivers and “matrons” or other such aides since December 1, 2014. As with her other requests, the Post has received a series of form letters from DOE delaying a response, with your most recent communication of April 6, 2016, stating that the DOE anticipates responding by May 4, 2016, five months following the request.

As you well know, New York law does not permit unreasonable delays of the sort indulged by the DOE here. The purpose of FOIL is to “promote open government and public accountability” with the law imposing “a broad duty on government to make its records available to the public.” Matter of Tuck-It-Away Assocs., LP v. Empire State Dev. Corp., 54 A.D. 3d 154, 162, 861 N.Y.S.2d 51 (1st Dep’t 2008). “When faced with a FOIL request, an agency must either disclose the record sought, deny the request and claim a specific exemption to disclosure, or certify that it does not possess the requested document and that it could not be located after a diligent search.” Matter of Beechwood Restorative Care Ctr. v. Signor, 5 N.Y.3d 435, 440-41 (2005).

FOIL grants an agency just five days to acknowledge a request and provide “a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a) (emphasis added). In the absence of a timely response, the requesting party may deem the failure to respond a denial and commence an Article 78 proceeding for review of such denial. Matter of New York Times Co. v. City of N.Y. Police Dep’t, 103 A.D.3d 405, 959 N.Y.S.2d 171 (1st Dep’t 2013); Matter of Miller v. N.Y. State Dep’t of Transp., 58 A.D.3d 981, 983, 871 N.Y.S.2d 489 (3rd Dep’t 2009); Matter of Goyer v. N.Y. State Dep’t of Envtl. Conservation, 12 Misc.3d 261, 813 N.Y.S.2d 628 (Sup. Ct., Albany Cnty. 2005). Moreover, FOIL provides for shifting of attorneys’ fees when “the agency failed to respond to a request or appeal within the statutory time.” N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(4)(c)(ii).

There can be no doubt that the requested records are subject to FOIL, and that the five-day deadline has long since passed, notwithstanding DOE’s most recent letters claiming extensions. We consider DOE’s repeated delays and unilateral open-ended extensions of time to be patently unreasonable given the nature of the records requested. If the requested records are not produced by or before May 6, 2016 (the latter of the most recent deadlines provided by DOE), the Post reserves all rights and remedies, including considering DOE’s excessive delays a constructive denial, bringing an Article 78 proceeding, and seeking attorneys’ fees.

Dear Ms. Guerra:

We represent NYP Holdings, Inc., publisher of the New York Post (the “Post”). This letter constitutes the Post’s appeal of the constructive denials of six separate requests for information submitted by Post reporters Susan Edelman and Aaron Short to the New York City Department of Education (“DOE”) under the New York Freedom of Information Law, New York Public Officers Law § 87 (“FOIL”). DOE’s repeated practice of granting itself unilateral extensions of time to respond to the Post’s FOIL requests without explanation is patently unreasonable and contrary to law. For the reasons that follow, the Post requests that you order production of the requested records within the next ten (10) days as required by law.

BACKGROUND

Since September 2014, Ms. Edelman and Mr. Short have submitted several FOIL requests to DOE on behalf of the Post. In each case, DOE Central Records Access Officer & Agency Attorney, Joseph A. Baranello, has acknowledged receipt of the request by letter and stated that “a response is currently anticipated by [x date].” Not once, however, has DOE provided a response by the anticipated date, and instead Mr. Baranello has sent the following form letter, again and again:

This letter concerns the above-referenced Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) request. Pursuant to section VI.B of Chancellor's Regulation D-110, due to the volume and complexity of requests we receive and process, and to determine whether any records or portions thereof will be subject to redactions permitted under Public Officers Law §87(2), additional time is required to respond substantively to your request. Accordingly, a response is currently anticipated by [x date].

(hereinafter the "Form Delay Letter"). Mr. Baranello's Form Delay Letter offers no legally-cognizable explanation for these unilateral delays, and does not provide a "date certain" for when the request will be granted in whole or in part as is required by the FOIL. See N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a).

Nine separate FOIL requests are the subject of this appeal:

F10,586

On September 23, 2014, Mr. Short submitted a FOIL request for a list of public school teachers, sorted by school, who have taken between 11 and 20 days off from school in the 2013-2014 school year, and a list of teachers who have taken 20 or more days off. On September 30, 2014, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Mr. Short acknowledging receipt of his request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by October 29, 2014. On October 29, 2014, however, instead of receiving a response to his request, Mr. Short received a Form Delay Letter from Mr. Baranello stating that "a response is currently anticipated by December 1, 2014." (emphasis in original). Over the next several months, Mr. Baranello sent a series of identical Form Delay Letters to Mr. Short granting DOE unilateral extensions until February 2, 2015, March 31, 2015, April 28, 2015, May 27, 2015, June 24, 2015, September 18, 2015, October 19, 2015, November 17, 2015, December 17, 2015, January 21, 2016, February 19, 2016, March 18, 2016, and finally, April 15, 2016. The most recent April 15, 2016 deadline has now passed and Mr. Short has received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is Mr. Short's September 23, 2014 request, DOE's acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F10,764

On November 20, 2014, Mr. Short submitted another FOIL request for a list or spreadsheet of arrests of DOE employees and the type of crime or non-criminal incident for which they were charged from January 1, 2010 to November 20, 2014. On December 1, 2014, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Short an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by December 31, 2014. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent multiple Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to February 2, 2015, March 31, 2015, April 28, 2015, May 27, 2015, June 24, 2015, August 20, 2015, September 18, 2015, October 19, 2015, November 17, 2015, December 17, 2015, January 21, 2016, February 19, 2016, March 18, 2016, and finally April 15, 2016. As with his first request, the most recent April 15, 2016 deadline has now passed and Mr. Short has received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is Mr. Short's November 20, 2014 request, DOE's acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F11,479

On July 6, 2015, Ms. Edelman submitted a FOIL request for records on the re-scoring of the Regents exams in New York City schools including all records of requests by New York City superintendents and other personnel to re-score the January Regents exams. On July 13, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent a letter to Ms. Edelman acknowledging receipt of her request and stating that DOE anticipated providing a response by August 10, 2015. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent multiple Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to September 8, 2015, November 4, 2015, December 7, 2015, January 8, 2016, February 8, 2016, March 25, 2016, and finally, May 20, 2016. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is Ms. Edelman's July 6, 2015 request, DOE's acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F11,571

On August 12, 2015, Ms. Edelman submitted a second FOIL request, this time for copies of reports completed or finalized since January 1, 2014 by the Office of Special Investigation (OSI). As with her prior request, on August 19, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by September 17, 2015. Also like her prior request, instead of receiving a response, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman a series of Form Delay Letters granting unilateral extensions until October 16, 2015, November 16, 2015, December 16, 2015, January 20, 2016, February 18, 2016, April 14, 2016, May 12, 2016, and finally June 10, 2016. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is Ms. Edelman's August 12, 2015 request, DOE's acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F11,677

On October 2, 2015, Mr. Short submitted a FOIL request for payroll records for Renewal School Superintendent Amy Horowitz and all staff who work with Ms. Horowitz on the Renewal School initiative for 2015, or for the 2014-2015 school year. On October 9, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Short an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by November 9, 2015. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent multiple Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to December 10, 2015, February 11, 2016, April 8, 2016, and finally May 6, 2016. The May 6, 2016 deadline has now passed and Mr. Short has received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter. Attached hereto as Exhibit E is Mr. Short's October 2, 2015 request, DOE's acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

Charity Guerra, Esq.

F11,856

On December 2, 2015, Ms. Edelman submitted a third FOIL request for records of disciplinary action involving school bus drivers and “matrons” or other such aides since December 1, 2014. On December 8, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by January 11, 2016. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to February 9, 2016, March 9, 2016, April 6, 2016, May 4, 2016, and finally June 2, 2016. Attached hereto as Exhibit F is Ms. Edelman’s December 2, 2015 request, DOE’s acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F11,858

Also on December 2, 2015, Ms. Edelman submitted a fourth FOIL request for records detailing weapons found or confiscated in city schools in the 2013-2014 school year, the 2014-2015 school year, and the current school year. Ms. Edelman had previously requested and been provided with this exact information by DOE for prior years reporting. Recognizing that this data is readily available to DOE, in an effort to expedite processing of her request, Ms. Edelman attached to her request the similar records DOE released to her in March 2012. On December 8, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by January 11, 2016. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to February 9, 2016, March 9, 2016, April 6, 2016, May 4, 2016, and finally June 2, 2016. Attached hereto as Exhibit G is Ms. Edelman’s December 2, 2015 request, DOE’s acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F11,894

On December 16, 2015, Mr. Short submitted his third FOIL request for attendance records for all DOE principals in the 2013-2014 school year, 2014-2015 school year, and in 2015 between September 9, 2015 and December 15, 2015. On December 22, 2015, Mr. Baranello sent Mr. Short an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by January 26, 2016. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to March 23, 2016, and finally April 20, 2016. The most recent April 20, 2016 deadline has now passed and Mr. Short has received neither a substantive response nor even another Form Delay Letter. Attached hereto as Exhibit H is Mr. Short’s December 16, 2016 request, DOE’s acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

F12,015

On January 25, 2016, Ms. Edelman submitted a fifth FOIL request for records of all procurement card (P-card) expenses by DOE personnel since August 21, 2014. As with request

Charity Guerra, Esq.
May 18, 2016

F11,858, Ms. Edelman had previously requested and been provided with this exact information for the period from September 1, 2013 to August 21, 2014. Again, in an effort to expedite the processing of her request, Ms. Edelman attached to her request DOE's response to her prior request. On January 28, 2016, Mr. Baranello sent Ms. Edelman an acknowledgment letter and stated that DOE anticipated providing a response by February 26, 2016. Since then, Mr. Baranello has sent Form Delay Letters pushing back the anticipated response date to March 25, 2016, April 22, 2016, and finally May 20, 2016. Attached hereto as Exhibit I is Ms. Edelman's January 25, 2016 request, DOE's acknowledgment letter, and each of the successive Form Delay Letters.

Over the course of this extended and unreasonable period of delay, Ms. Edelman and Mr. Short did not sit idly by. For example, on November 17, 2015, frustrated with DOE's dilatory tactics, Ms. Edelman e-mailed Mr. Baranello and DOE General Counsel Ms. Courtenaye Jackson-Chase, contesting DOE's unlawful practice of sending multiple "form letters delaying compliance with no specific reason." Specifically, she wrote, "You say the documents will be forthcoming the following month, but I have no confidence that you will send anything other than another form letter with another delay." Ms. Edelman received no response to her e-mail. Attached hereto as Exhibit J is Ms. Edelman's November 17, 2015 e-mail.

Further, on both March 31, 2016 and April 14, 2016, counsel for the Post sent letters to Mr. Baranello requesting that DOE respond to the Post's requests and to inform him that the DOE pattern and practice of delays was unreasonable and contrary to law. In each of these letters, the Post stated that if the requested records were not provided in a timely fashion, the Post would have no choice but to consider DOE's excessive and repeated delays a constructive denial. Neither Mr. Baranello nor anyone at DOE responded to the Post's letters, and as of the writing of this letter, DOE has not provided any substantive response to any of the Post's then outstanding requests. Attached hereto as Exhibit K is the Post's March 31, 2016 letter and attached hereto as Exhibit L is the Post's April 14, 2016 letter.

ARGUMENT

DOE's repeated and unjustified delays in responding to the Post's various FOIL requests is a plain violation of Section 89(3)(a) of the FOIL. As you well know, New York law does not permit unreasonable delays of the sort indulged by DOE here. In enacting FOIL, the Legislature declared that "government is the public's business" and expressly found that "a free society is maintained when government is responsive and responsible to the public, and when the public is aware of governmental actions." S. Shore Press, Inc. v. Havemeyer, 136 A.D.3d 929, 931, 25 N.Y.S.3d 303, 304 (2d Dep't 2016). Accordingly, the FOIL law imposes "a broad duty on government to make its records available to the public." Matter of Tuck-It-Away Assocs., LP v. Empire State Dev. Corp., 54 A.D.3d 154, 162, 861 N.Y.S.2d 51 (1st Dep't 2008). "When faced with a FOIL request, an agency must either disclose the record sought, deny the request and claim a specific exemption to disclosure, or certify that it does not possess the requested document and that it could not be located after a diligent search.” Matter of Beechwood Restorative Care Ctr. v. Signor, 5 N.Y.3d 435, 440-41 (2005).

Section 89(3)(a) of the FOIL governs the time and manner in which agencies must respond to FOIL requests. That section provides, in relevant part, as follows:

Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied . . . . If an agency determines to grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the request, the agency shall state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reasonable period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be granted in whole or in part.

N.Y. Pub. Off. Law § 89(3)(a). In other words, where an agency determines it requires more than twenty additional business days from the date of its acknowledgment letter to respond to a FOIL request, it must indicate a “date certain” that includes both a firm date and the reasons for requiring additional time. And like the FOIL statute, Chancellor’s Regulation D-110 § VI.B – as cited in the Form Delay Letters – requires that DOE provide “a date certain within a reasonable period” when the request will be granted in whole or in part. See Chancellor’s Regulation D-110 § VI.B. In the absence of a timely response, the requesting party may deem the failure to respond a denial and commence an Article 78 proceeding for review of such denial. Matter of New York Times Co. v. City of N.Y. Police Dep’t, 103 A.D.3d 405, 959 N.Y.S.2d 171 (1st Dep’t 2013); Matter of Miller v. N.Y. State Dep’t of Transp., 58 A.D.3d 981, 983, 871 N.Y.S.2d 489 (3d Dep’t 2009).

A recent Advisory Opinion by the Committee on Open Government (the “Committee”) is instructive.<sup>1</sup> There, an attorney with the law firm of Couch White, LLP requested certain records from Empire State Development (“ESD”). After acknowledging receipt of the request in a timely fashion, ESD sent a series of three e-mails to the requesting attorney over the course of many months unilaterally extending its time to respond, stating that it was processing her request, and providing a date by which it “hopes to have a response.” After ESD rejected her appeal from their constructive denial of her request, the requestor sought an advisory opinion from the Committee. See Ex. J.

After reiterating the general proposition that “there is no provision in the statute for repeated extensions,” the Committee observed that it was reasonable after receipt of three separate unilateral extension notices, to construe ESD’s failure to determine the requestor’s right of access as a constructive denial, especially considering that Section 89(3)(a) requires the agency to state the reasons for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days when advising a requestor it needs additional time to respond. See Ex. J at 2. The Committee observed further:

[I]t is unreasonable for an agency to delay its response when requested records can be located with facility and are clearly public. That other earlier requests involved records that may be voluminous, difficult to locate, and/or time consuming to review would not, in our view, authorize an agency, as a matter of practice of [sic] policy, to deal with requests solely on the basis of the dates of their receipt.

Id. Accordingly, the Committee suggested that the agency carefully review the request and that it provide in writing the reason for the delay with a date certain when the request will be granted in whole or in part.

Just as was the case in the Committee’s Advisory Opinion, the DOE has wholly failed to provide the Post with a “date certain” upon which its requests will be granted in whole or in part. Instead, the Form Delay Letters provide only a moving target date when “a response is currently anticipated.” This plainly does not satisfy the dictates of the FOIL or Chancellor’s Regulation. Nor is the length of these unilateral extensions “reasonable.” The Post has now waited between five and nine months and received between three and fourteen Form Delay Letters for each of the nine pending requests. This is plainly an excessive delay in violation of DOE’s statutory mandate considering DOE is required to provide a date certain within only twenty business days of acknowledging receipt of a request.

Likewise, DOE has failed to offer any colorable reasons for requiring any additional time to respond, let alone the excessive time it has already taken. The Form Delay Letters purport to offer two bases for the delay: (1) the “volume and complexity of requests we receive and process”, and (2) “to determine whether any records or portions thereof will be subject to redactions permitted under Public Officers Law §87(2).” With respect to the first reason, as the Committee noted, the volume, difficulty, and/or time required to locate other unrelated requests does not authorize an agency to grant itself extensions of time to respond, let alone such an excessive extension as DOE has indulged in here. And the second reason DOE offers for delay is not one of the listed permitted factors to consider in determining a reasonable time in which a request will be granted under Section VI.B. of Chancellor’s Regulation D-110. In any event, the factors listed in that portion of the regulation are for determining what constitutes a “date certain within a reasonable period,” not as an excuse for claiming open-ended extensions as DOE does here.

Finally, at least two of the Requests, F11,858 and F12,015, ask DOE to provide records that on their face are easily located and that are clearly public, as DOE has provided this precise information to Ms. Edelman in response to past requests. Moreover, Ms. Edelman provided DOE’s prior responses along with her requests to facilitate DOE’s retrieval of the new records. However, for even these simple requests, DOE now “anticipates” producing these records five or six months following receipt of the Post’s requests. See Exs. E – F. Of course, neither the current June 2, 2016 response date for request F11,858 nor the May 20, 2016 response date for request F12,015 are dates certain, and DOE has given no indication that it will produce responsive records on or before these dates. And as DOE has not raised “ease or difficulty in locating” the requested records for any of the Post’s nine requests, presumably the other seven requests are likewise easily retrievable. See Chancellor’s Regulation D-110 § VI.B.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Post respectfully submits that DOE’s failure to timely respond to its FOIL requests constitutes a constructive denial. DOE should be ordered to respond to each of the Post’s requests and provide it access to the information requested. Because of the importance of the information the Post seeks and the urgency of the newsgathering process, we would appreciate your prompt consideration and look forward to receiving your response as quickly as possible, and certainly within ten (10) days, as the law requires.

Please call me with any questions you may have regarding the above. Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Handman,

I am writing in response to your email, dated May 18, 2016, in which you appeal what you describe as the New York City Department of Education's (DOE) denial of access to records which you requested pursuant to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL).

By email dated September 23, 2014, Aaron Short submitted a FOIL request seeking "a list of public school teachers, sorted by school, who have taken between 11 and 20 days off from school in the 2013-2014 school year, and a list of teachers who have taken 20 or more days off, as well as their reasons for taking sick days beyond 10 days." This FOIL request was assigned reference number F10,586.

By email dated November 20, 2014, Aaron Short submitted another request for a list or spreadsheet arrests of Department of Education employees (teachers, custodians, other staff) and the type of crime for which they were charged from January 1, 2010 to November 20, 2014. Also include c-summonses, non-criminal incidents, and other violations if those are tracked. This FOIL request was assigned reference number F10,764.

By email dated July 6, 2015, Sue Edelman made a request for "records on the re-scoring of the January Regents exams in New York City schools. --Please provide all records of requests by New York City superintendents and/or other personnel to re-score January Regents exams. The records must include the specific rationale or reasons given for the re-scoring. --In addition, please provide all reports, after the fact, of all re-scored exams. The reports, to the NYSED, should include the schools where re-scoring was done, the number and types of exams rescored, the specific errors or misapplication of rubric cited as justification for the re-scoring, and the names and titles of personnel who did the re-scoring." This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,479.

By email dated August 12, 2015, Sue Edelman submitted another request for “copies of all reports completed or finalized since Jan 1, 2014 by the Office of Special Investigation (OSI).” This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,571.

By email dated October 2, 2015, Aaron Short submitted a FOIL request for “Payroll records for Renewal School Superintendent Amy Horowitz and all staff who work with Ms. Horowitz on the Renewal School initiative for 2015, or for the 2014-15 school year.” This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,677.

By email dated December 2, 2015, Sue Edelman made a FOIL request for “records of disciplinary action taken against school bus drivers and ‘matrons’ or other such personnel since Dec. 1, 2014.” This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,856.

By email dated December 2, 2015, Sue Edelman also made a FOIL request for “records detailing weapons found/confiscated in city schools in the 2013-14 school year, the 2014-15 school year, and the current school year. This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,858.

By email dated December 16, 2015, Aaron Short made a FOIL request for “attendance records for all NYC DOE principals in the 2013-14 school year, 2014-15 school year, and in 2015 between September 9, 2015 and December 15, 2015.” This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,894.

Finally, by email dated January 25, 2016, Sue Edelman made a FOIL request for “records of all procurement card (P-card) expenses by Department of Education personnel since August 21, 2014.” This FOIL request was assigned reference number F12,122.

Consistent with Public Officers Law §89(3)(a) and Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VI)(A), the Central Records Access Officer (“CRAO”) acknowledged each of these requests within five business days and, by subsequent letters, provided a reasonable approximate date by which each of the requests would be determined.

With respect to FOIL requests F10,586; 10,764; 11,571; 11,677; 11,856; 11,858; 11,894; and 12,015, I have reviewed the requests at issue and find that these requests have not been constructively denied. Public Officers Law §89(3)(a) specifically permits an agency to extend its time to respond to a FOIL request “if circumstances prevent disclosure within twenty days,” so long as the requester is informed of the reason for the extension and is given a new reasonable approximate date for the agency’s response. Factors to be considered in determining whether there exist circumstances preventing disclosure can include, but are not limited to, “the volume of a request; ease or difficulty in locating, retrieving or generating records; the complexity of the request; the need to review records to determine the extent to which they must be disclosed; the number of requests received...” Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VI)(B) (citing 21 NYCRR §1401.5(d)). Furthermore, according to Chancellor’s Regulation D-110(VIII)(A), a request may be deemed constructively denied only where a requestor “is neither granted nor denied access to records within the time limits set forth above [in section (VI)] or in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s)...” (emphasis added). Also, administrative appeals are premature when respondent's efforts to respond to the request within the applicable time limitations are ongoing. See Matter of Advocates for Children of New York, Inc., 101 A.D.3d 445 (1st Dep't 2012).

Here, the CRAO properly determined that additional time was required in order to substantively respond to your requests. I note that the CRAO's extensions have been appropriate given the total number of requests as well as the extensive and voluminous nature of some of the items requested. I further note that review and redaction of the requested records pursuant to Public Officers Law §87(2)(including, but not limited to 87(2)(b) and 87(2)(g)) (for example, OSI reports and busing-related records, which also contain student-related information) are time-consuming given that each and every record must be reviewed to determine if any records or portions of records are exempt from disclosure (e.g., social security numbers and other personal information that appears sporadically throughout the requested records).

Moreover, I am informed that from January 2014 through the present, the CRAO has provided final determinations to approximately 30 FOIL requests which Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman submitted to this agency. Therefore, because the CRAO timely acknowledged your requests, and because the extensions granted were reasonable in light of the number of requests Mr. Short and Ms. Edelman have submitted, F10,586; 10,764; 11,571; 11,677; 11,856; 11,858; 11,894; and 12,015 have not been constructively denied.

With regard to F11,479, I am informed that by letter dated May 27, 2016, the CRAO issued a final determination of the request and provided records responsive to the request. Therefore, F11,479 is now moot.

For the foregoing reasons, your appeals are denied. However, I am directing the CRAO to respond to your requests expeditiously, to the extent practicable.

Sincerely,

Judy E. Nathan

Dear FOIL Appeal Officer:

I hereby appeal your office's defacto denial of related FOILs that were submitted on March 4th and 6th, 2015 seeking a copy of all emails sent and received by Devora Kaye on March 2 & 3, 2015.

That it should take more than 15 months to go through two days worth of emails in order to fulfill requests F11061 and F11068 is preposterous. Given the length of time your office has had to comply, and given the repeated extensions by your office of a date certain to provide the requested communications, I am considering the request defacto denied - and I'm appealing on that basis.

As required by the Freedom of Information Law, the head or governing body of an agency, or whomever is designated to determine appeals, is required to respond within 10 business days of the receipt of an appeal. If the records are denied on appeal, please explain the reasons for the denial fully in writing as required by law.

In addition, please be advised that the Freedom of Information Law directs that all appeals and the determinations that follow be sent to the Committee on Open Government, Department of State, One Commerce Plaza, 99 Washington Ave., Albany, New York 12231.

Dear FOIL Appeal Officer:

I hereby appeal your office's defacto denial of FOIL 11,115 that was submitted on March 17, 2015 seeking stipulations of settlement or expedited 3020-A hearing reports connected to the departure of each of the 291 educators/staffers in the ATR pool that Mayor de Blasio had said repeatedly were "moved" out of the schools system since April 2014.

To date, more than 15 months after submission of my request, your office has provided not a single stipulation or 3020-A report. RE: # F11,061, F11,068, F11,115, and F11,994

Dear Mr. Gonen:

I am writing in response to your emails received on May 25, 2016, in which you appeal what you describe as the New York City Department of Education's (DOE) constructive denial of access to records which you requested pursuant to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL).

By email received on March 5, 2015, you submitted a FOIL request for "... a copy of all emails sent and received by Devora Kaye on March 3, 2015." This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,061.

By email received on March 6, 2015, you submitted another FOIL request for "... a copy of all emails sent and received by Devora Kaye on March 2, 2015." This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,068.

By email dated March 17, 2015, you submitted yet another request for "... the reason for/method of departure for each of the 291 educations/staffers in the ATR pool...that have been "moved" out of the school system since April 2014." This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,115.

Finally, by email dated January 21, 2016, you submitted a FOIL request seeking "...a list of every DOE employee who was granted a waiver between Jan 1, 2014 and Jan. 21, 2016 from the new pedagogic experience requirements..." This FOIL request was assigned reference number F11,994.

Consistent with Public Officers Law §89(3)(a) and Chancellor's Regulation D-110(VI)(A), the Central Records Access Officer ("CRAO") acknowledged each of your requests within five business days and, by subsequent letters, provided you with a reasonable approximate date by which each of your requests would be determined.

With respect to FOIL requests F11,061, F11,068 and F11,115, I have reviewed the requests at issue and find that these requests have not been constructively denied. Public Officers Law §89(3)(a) specifically permits an agency to extend its time to respond to a FOIL request "if circumstances prevent disclosure within twenty days," so long as the requester is informed of the reason for the extension and is given a new reasonable approximate date for the agency's response. Factors to be considered in determining whether there exist circumstances preventing disclosure can include, but are not limited to, "the volume of a request; ease or difficulty in locating, retrieving or generating records; the complexity of the request; the need to review records to determine the extent to which they must be disclosed; the number of requests received..." Chancellor's Regulation D-110(VI)(B) (citing 21 NYCRR §1401.5(d)). Furthermore, according to Chancellor's Regulation D-110(VIII)(A), a request may be deemed constructively denied only where a requestor "is neither granted nor denied access to records within the time limits set forth above [in section (VI)] or in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s)..." (emphasis added).

Here, the CRAO properly determined that additional time was required in order to substantively respond to your requests. I note that the CRAO's extensions have been appropriate given the extensiveness of your various request items. I further note that review and redaction of the requested records is time-consuming given that each and every record must be reviewed to determine if any records or portions of records are exempt from disclosure pursuant to various subsections of Public Officers Law §87(2), in particular §87(2)(g) (with regard to intra/inter-agency emails).

Therefore, because the CRAO timely acknowledged your requests and the extensions granted were reasonable, F11,061, F11,068 and F11,115 have not been constructively denied.

Finally, with regard to F11,994, I am informed that a final determination with responsive information was issued to you on May 27, 2016. In light of this, your appeal of F11,994 is now moot.

For the foregoing reasons, your appeals are denied.

Sincerely,

Judy E. Nathan

The staff of the Committee on Open Government is authorized to issue advisory opinions. The ensuing staff advisory opinion is based solely upon the information presented in your correspondence, except as otherwise indicated.

Dear Mr. Chase:

We are in receipt of your request for an advisory opinion regarding the manner in which the New York City Department of Education has responded to your clients' multiple Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) requests. You also request an opinion as to whether certain aspects of the Department of Education's Chancellor's Regulations are consistent with FOIL and regulations promulgated by the Committee on Open Government pertaining to FOIL.

You state in your appeal letter that "[t]he Post has now waited between five and nineteen months and received between three and fourteen Form Delay Letters for each of the nine pending requests."

As you are aware, FOIL provides direction concerning the time and manner in which agencies must respond to requests. Specifically, §89(3)(a) of FOIL states in part that:

"Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied.... If an agency determines to grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the request, the agency shall state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reasonable period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be granted in whole or in part."

Accordingly, it has long been advised that when an agency is unable to deny or provide access to records within five business days, it must provide an acknowledgement within that time indicating an approximate date, not to exceed twenty additional business days, on which it will grant access in whole or in part. If it is determined, either within five business days of the receipt of the request, or at or near the expiration of twenty business days of its acknowledgement, that it is unable to respond within twenty additional business days, it must indicate a "date certain" that includes both the date and the reasons for requiring additional time. Although we recognize that there are occasions when an agency will require an extension of time beyond that which it initially predicted, there is no provision in the statute for an extension beyond the date certain or repeated extensions. The date certain must be reasonable based on attendant facts and circumstances.

Department
of State

NYC DOE Chancellor's regulation D-110(VI)(B) accurately reflects the requirements of FOIL and the Committee's regulations in relation to time limit extensions and the need to provide the requestor with a "date certain within a reasonable period" by which the agency will respond. The factors to consider in determining a reasonable time set forth the Chancellor's regulation mirror 21 NYCRR 1401.5(d). However, in the agency's appeal determination, the appeal officer states that the agency is only required to provide the requestor with "a new reasonable approximate date for the agency's response" when the agency informs the requestor of the need for an extension. The term "approximate date" in this context is not consistent with FOIL, the Committee's regulations, or the Chancellor's regulation, for a "date certain" is not given.

When an agency fails to comply with the time limits for response as described in §89(3)(a), or denies access to records in writing, FOIL permits the applicant to file an administrative appeal, and, if the agency denies the appeal, that person may seek judicial review pursuant to Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules. We note that the Legislature chose to distinguish the two types of denials in §89(4)(a), as follows:

"...any person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, or governing body, who shall within ten business days of the receipt of such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought"

and further,

"Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of subdivision three of this section shall constitute a denial."

Because it distinguishes between the two types of denials, one in writing and the other due to a failure to respond in a timely manner, it is our opinion that the Legislature intended that there may be two types of appeals: one, from a denial of access in writing based on an exception to rights of access, and the other, from a constructive denial of access as a result of the agency's failure to comply with the time limits for response required by §89(3)(a).

Chancellor's regulation D-110(VIII)(A) appears to contemplate the possibility of repeated extensions by using the term "letter(s)":

"A requester who is neither granted nor denied access to records within the time limits set forth above or in the acknowledgment letter or any extension letter(s) may consider the request constructively denied and may appeal such denial in accordance with the procedures set forth below." (emphasis mine)

As stated earlier, there is no provision in the statute for repeated extensions. Section 1401.1(1) of the Committee's regulations state: "No agency regulations shall be more restrictive than this Part." As such, the agency is not permitted to establish the right to repeated extensions via regulation, where such right does not exist in statute or in the Committee's own regulations.

Because the agency notified you on multiple occasions prior to your May 18, 2016 appeal that it would need additional time to grant or deny access based on §87(2) of FOIL, we believe that it was reasonable, upon receipt of the subsequent extension notices, to construe these failures to determine rights of access as constructive denials on the part of the agency.

You state in your appeal letter that one of the two bases for a delay offered by the agency was the "volume and complexity of requests we receive and process." In our opinion, it is unreasonable for an agency to delay its response when requested records can be located with facility and are clearly public. That other earlier requests involved records that may be voluminous, difficult to locate, and/or time consuming to review would not, in our view, authorize an agency, as a matter of practice of policy, to deal with requests solely on the basis of the dates of their receipt.

You also contend that the second reason the agency offered for delay ("to determine whether any records or portions thereof will be subject to redactions permitted under Public Officers Law §87(2)") is not one of the listed permitted factors to consider in determining a reasonable time in which a request will be granted. In my opinion, this reason for delay offered by the agency is consistent with both the Committee's regulations and the Chancellor's regulations ("the need to review records to determine the extent to which they must be disclosed..." 21 NYCRR 1401.5(d) and D-110(VI)(B)).

We are unaware of the volume or complexity of the records that the agency has determined to be responsive to your request. I would suggest that the agency carefully review your request, as well as the attendant circumstances regarding its ability to respond, and that it provide you, in writing, with a reason for the delay, and a date certain when the request will be granted in whole or in part.

I hope that I have been of assistance.

Sincerely,

Kristin O'Neill

The staff of the Committee on Open Government is authorized to issue advisory opinions. The ensuing staff advisory opinion is based solely upon the information presented in your correspondence, except as otherwise indicated.

Dear Ms. Vives:

We are in receipt of your request for an advisory opinion regarding the manner in which Empire State Development responded to your Freedom Information Law (FOIL) request.

By way of background, FOIL provides direction concerning the time and manner in which agencies must respond to requests. Specifically, §89(3)(a) of the Freedom of Information Law states in part that:

“Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied.... If an agency determines to grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the request, the agency shall state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reasonable period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be granted in whole or in part.”

Accordingly, it has long been advised that when an agency is unable to deny or provide access to records within five business days, it must provide an acknowledgement within that time indicating an approximate date, not to exceed twenty additional business days, on which it will grant access in whole or in part. If it is determined, either within five business days of the receipt of the request, or at or near the expiration of twenty business days of its acknowledgement, that it is unable to respond within twenty additional business days, it must indicate a “date certain” that includes both the date and the reasons for requiring additional time. Although we recognize that there are occasions when an agency will require an extension of time beyond that which it initially predicted, there is no provision in the statute for an extension beyond the date certain or repeated extensions. The date certain must be reasonable based on attendant facts and circumstances.

When an agency fails to comply with the time limits for response as described in §89(3)(a), or denies access to records in writing, FOIL permits the applicant to file an administrative appeal, and, if the agency denies the appeal, that person may seek judicial review pursuant to Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules. We note that the Legislature chose to distinguish the two types of denials in §89(4)(a), as follows:

Department
of State

"...any person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, or governing body, who shall within ten business days of the receipt of such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought"

and further,

"Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of subdivision three of this section shall constitute a denial."

Because it distinguishes between the two types of denials, one in writing and the other due to a failure to respond in a timely manner, it is our opinion that the Legislature intended that there may be two types of appeals: one, from a denial of access in writing based on an exception to rights of access, and the other, from a constructive denial of access as a result of the agency's failure to comply with the time limits for response required by §89(3)(a).

As stated earlier, there is no provision in the statute for repeated extensions. Because the agency notified you on three separate occasions prior to your December 14, 2015 appeal (and one additional time after your appeal) that it would need additional time to grant or deny access based on §87(2) of FOIL, we believe that it was reasonable, upon receipt of the third extension notice, to construe this failure to determine rights of access as a constructive denial on the part of the agency. I point out that §89(3)(a) of FOIL requires an agency to state "the reason for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days" when advising a requestor that it requires additional time to respond. The September, October, December, and January extension letters from the agency records access officer do not include a reason for the delay in response.

The agency's FOIL appeals officer responded to your December 14, 2015 appeal of its constructive denial by stating, in part, that "ESD is diligently working on preparing its responses to all FOIL requests, and to the extent that is reasonable give the nature of the request and the materials, responding to requests in the order that they were received. Given this context, the time to process your request is not unreasonable." We point out that the decision cited by Mr. Pidedjian to justify the delays, Matter of Data Tree, LLC v. Romaine, 9 N.Y.3d 454, was decided in 2007, before the enactment of amendments to §89(3)(a) concerning the time in which agencies must respond to requests.

In our opinion, it is unreasonable for an agency to delay its response when requested records can be located with facility and are clearly public. That other earlier requests involved records that may be voluminous, difficult to locate, and/or time consuming to review would not, in our view, authorize an agency, as a matter of practice of policy, to deal with requests solely on the basis of the dates of their receipt.

We are unaware of the volume or complexity of the records that the agency has determined to be responsive to your request. I would suggest that the agency carefully review your request, as well as the attendant circumstances regarding its ability to respond, and that it provide you, in writing, with a reason for the delay, and a date certain when the request will be granted in whole or in part.

I hope that I have been of assistance.

Sincerely,

Subject: Opinion on FOIL Request Appeal Denial

Dear Mr. Freeman,

I am writing to get your opinion on whether we should seek a formal opinion from your office on the matter explained below.

On September 24, 2015, I requested records from ESD. ESD acknowledged my request in a timely fashion but has yet to send any records. Instead, it has sent periodic emails in which it states that it is still processing my request and gives a date by which it "hopes to have a response." Having received three such emails, I considered the pattern of extension, without a date certain or a reason, a denial.

I submitted an appeal letter dated December 14, 2015. A copy of which is attached for your convenience. My appeal was denied by letter dated December 29, 2015. The reasons cited were: (1) the manner in which it gathers records and (2) ESD is experiencing a backlog for FOIL requests. A copy of the denial letter is also attached for your convenience.

Following the denial, I received yet another email from ESD extending the response date from January 6, 2016 to hopefully January 21, 2016. There seems to be no end to this pattern. In your opinion is this type of response appropriate under the law?

Thank you,

Re: Appeal of Withholding of September 20, 2015 Freedom of Information Law
("FOIL") Request

Dear Mr. Pidedjian:

We submitted the above-referenced FOIL request via email on September 20, 2015 (a copy of which is enclosed for your reference). Since the acknowledgement of the receipt of my request, a pattern has developed wherein Empire State Development ("ESD") sends an email stating that my request is being processed and that it "hopes to have a response" by a given date. When that date arrives, I receive another email with the same message and an extended date. I have received three such emails to date (copies of which are enclosed for your reference). I have twice requested, in writing, a date certain for such response but to no avail (copies of such requests are enclosed for your reference). Finally, I telephoned ESD and had a conversation with Records Access Officer, Leslie Hall, who was unable and/or unwilling to provide me with a date on which my records would be available. Given that there is no foreseeable end to ESD's pattern, and that I have not received a reason for the delay or a date certain by which I will receive the records, I consider my request denied according to 21 NYCRR § 1401.5 (e) (6). Thus, pursuant to Public Officers Law § 89 (4) (a), I am appealing the withholding of the requested records.

On December 7, 2015, I received an email from ESD stating, "Please be advised that we are still processing the attached FOIL request. We hope to have a response to you on or before January 6, 2016." Prior to that, I received an email on November 5, 2015 which stated, "Please be advised that we are still processing the attached FOIL request. We hope to have a response to you on or before December 7, 2015." A similar email, that I received on September 24, 2015, was sent prior to that which stated, "Please be advised that we are still processing the attached FOIL request. We hope to have a response to you on or before November 5, 2015."

After receiving the September 24, 2015 email, I wrote a letter dated October 5, 2015 in which I requested a reason for the delayed response and "[a] date certain, within a reasonable period, when the request will be granted." I did not receive a response from ESD. Following the receipt of the December 7, 2015 email, I wrote a letter requesting the aforementioned information. I followed the letter with a phone call to ESD on December 9, 2015.

During the above-referenced phone call, I spoke with Leslie Hall via telephone. I requested an explanation for the latest denial and a date certain by which I could expect the requested records. I was told, that ESD is experiencing a “backlog” and that many requests other than mine await responses. He stated that the backlog was due to the nature of the ESD’s process of collecting records from various sources within ESD. When I asked Mr. Hall if he could provide me with even part of the records he had been able to collect to date, he said he could not. He also said that he did know when the records would be ready and could not provide me with a date certain.

Mr. Hall’s response offered no certainty as to when I could expect to receive a response. Coupled with ESD’s pattern, I am led to believe that I will receive another email on January 6, 2016, the latest date that I am told that I may receive a response, which states that my request is still being processed and that ESD “hopes to have a response” on a future date. Moreover, even if the records arrive by January 6, 2015, over three months will have passed – 104 days to be exact – since my request was received on September 24, 2015.

Pursuant to 21 NYCRR § 1401.5 (e) (6), failure to comply with the statutory time limits is considered a denial which includes situations where an agency “does not grant a request in whole or in part within twenty business days of its acknowledgment of the receipt of a request and fails to provide the reason in writing explaining its inability to do so and a date certain by which the request will be granted in whole or in part . . . .” Based on the foregoing, ESD has failed to comply with the statutory time limits and has failed to provide the reason and a date certain in writing.

As required by FOIL, the head or governing body of an agency, or whomever is designated to determine appeals, is required to respond within ten business days of the receipt of an appeal. If the records are denied on appeal, please explain the reasons for the denial fully and in writing as required by law.

Finally, please be advised that the Freedom of Information Law directs that all appeals and the determinations be sent to the Committee on Open Government, Department of State, 41 State Street, Albany, New York 12231.

Dear Ms. Vives:

ESD is in receipt of your appeal dated December 15, 2015 concerning your September 20, 2015 request for documents made pursuant to Freedom of Information Law (Public Officers Law, § 84, et seq.) ("FOIL"). Your appeal asserts that ESD has constructively denied the Request for lack of a response.

As indicated in your appeal, ESD acknowledged your request via e-mail on September 24, 2015 and stated that ESD was processing your request and hoped to have a response to you on or before November 5, 2015. ESD sent a second e-mail message on November 5, 2015, stating that ESD was processing your request and hoped to have a response to you on or before December 7, 2015. ESD sent a third e-mail message to you on December 7, 2015 stating that ESD was processing your request and hoped to have a response to you on or before January 6, 2016. All ESD messages were sent in a timely manner pursuant to POL §89(3)(a).

Moreover, as the New York State Court of Appeals stated in Matter of Data Tree, LLC v. Romaine, 9 N.Y.3d 454, 465 (2007), "there is no specific time period in which the agency must grant access to the records [in response to FOIL requests]. Indeed, the time needed to comply with the request may be dependent on a number of factors, including the volume of the request and the retrieval methods." An agency responding to a FOIL request must provide responsive records in a time "which is reasonable in view of the attendant circumstances." Id.

Please note that in order to fulfill your request, ESD has to contact the appropriate staff members, gather the materials, review them for applicable exemptions pursuant to FOIL and prepare a final response.

Moreover, please note that your request is one of a number of pending FOIL requests, including a number of complex FOIL requests that ESD is processing. A number of the requests in process were received prior to your request. ESD is diligently working on preparing its responses to all FOIL requests, and to the extent that is reasonable given the nature of the request and the materials, responding to requests in the order that they were received. Given this context, the time to process your request is not unreasonable.

The materials that you requested are subject to potential redactions pursuant to exemptions from disclosure under Section 87(2)(b), (d) and (g) of FOIL. In the event ESD determines to make redactions pursuant to one of more of these exemptions, of course, you are free to appeal ESD's determination(s) pursuant to FOIL.

Therefore your appeal is denied.

ESD continues to process your request. ESD's assigned Records Access Officer will provide you with an update regarding the date by which you can expect to receive a next response regarding the status of your request.

Re: Freedom of Information Law Request – Teagan Trucking, LLC

Dear Records Access Officer:

Under the provision of the New York Freedom of Information Law, Article 6 of the Public Officers Law (“FOIL”), I hereby request all records or portions thereof pertaining to the WBE known as Teagan Trucking, LLC (“Teagan”), owned by Anne-Marie Galasso and located at 111 Josephine Dr., Cobleskill, New York 12043.

If this request is too broad or does not adequately describe the records sought, please contact me so that I may clarify my request, and when appropriate, inform me of the manner in which the records are filed, retrieved or generated.

We are prepared to pay the customary fees for the copying of these documents, but we would like the opportunity to review any documents which are voluminous prior to copying to minimize your effort and our expense. If that is the case, please advise me of the appropriate time during normal business hours and the location for inspecting the Records. If reasonably possible, I would like to request access to the above-described records via e-mail to nvives@couchwhite.com.

As you know, the Freedom of Information Law requires that an agency respond to a request within five business days of receipt of a request. Therefore, I would appreciate a response as soon as possible and look forward to hearing from you shortly.

If for any reason any portion of my request is denied, please inform me of the reasons for the denial in writing and provide the name and address of the person or body to whom an appeal should be directed.

Thank you for your assistance, and please let us hear from you with the time period required by the statute.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

New York's Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) enables effective oversight of government, prevents waste and corruption, and bolsters public confidence in institutions. This report represents New York City's first-ever comprehensive look at government responsiveness to public information requests. It evaluates the speed of response, whether responses were delivered at all, and the ease with which FOIL requests can be filed at 38 City agencies. The result is a FOIL Report Card that grades agencies and provides a benchmark for improvement.

The Report Card demonstrates deep inconsistency across City agencies—with some meeting most of their legal obligations, while other agencies neglect them completely. The 18 agencies that received more than 100 FOIL requests were awarded the following grades for their performance:

Grade A

Grade B

Grade C

Grade D

Grade F

In analyzing the 10,000 FOIL requests used as a basis for the Report Card, the Public Advocate identified several key areas where agencies were neglecting their responsibilities under the law:

- The process for submitting FOIL requests to City agencies and tracking their status is inconsistent and can be extremely challenging for the public to navigate. 40% of City agencies lack information on their website about where to direct FOIL requests. Neither 311 nor the City's Green Book provide this information.
- For the three months of FOIL data analyzed, more than 1,000 individuals or groups had not received an approval or denial determination after more than six months of waiting – that represents one-in-ten requests that were either ignored or fell through the cracks. While these non-responses represent de facto denials, the lack of firm response impedes the appeal process and legal action.
- When City agencies responded to FOIL requests, response times varied dramatically by agency.

To help improve the City's responsiveness to information requests, Public Advocate de Blasio has put forward the following recommendations:

1. Strengthen the City's oversight of FOIL responsiveness by adopting legislation to require monthly reporting to the City Council and Public Advocate on the status of all FOIL requests, as well as annual reporting to the public in the Mayor's Management Report.
2. Speed requests for the most commonly-sought information and reduce FOIL officer workload by posting minutes, public schedules and license data online for easy access. Record Access Officers at City agencies should also receive annual training on FOIL compliance, which is available at no cost through the New York State Committee on Open Government.

3. Ensure greater accountability through semi-annual reviews of each agency's FOIL compliance by the Commission on Public Information & Communication (COPIC).
4. Streamline the process of filing FOIL requests and getting updates on their status. 311 and the City's Green Book should maintain contact information for all record access officers at City agencies. New York City should follow the federal government's lead and transition to a single online portal for processing FOIL requests to City agencies.
5. Assess fines for non-compliance. In instances where a court finds that an agency exhibited a 'pattern and practice' of violating FOIL or de facto denials resulting from excessive delays, a fee should be assessed to the agency for each day of non-compliance.
6. Pass legislation mandating that all City agencies must proactively publish commonly-requested records online. This would modernize FOIL disclosure practices and encourage agencies to adapt to changes in technology.

INTRODUCTION

Transparency and responsiveness in government decisions and policies engenders trust in our democratic process. Clear guidelines and required disclosure practices not only ensure accountability of government entities, it also supports the engagement of the public and promotes the voice of the citizenry. These principals are supported and protected by the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL).

FOIL, enacted in 1974, affirms every citizen's right to access a wide variety of information from state and city agencies. It was passed with the understanding that a free society is maintained when government is responsive and responsible to the public.<sup>1</sup> Specifically, it provides rights of access to all records that document the process and policies of government agencies.<sup>2</sup> This includes any record of "any information kept, held, filed, produced or reproduced by, with or for any agency or the State Legislature, in any physical form whatsoever."<sup>3</sup> While there are some exceptions to the information that can be provided, every government agency in New York State must comply with specific legal requirements relating to response time and extent of disclosure as stipulated under FOIL.

It is important to note that FOIL was written in a different era – one with significant limitations in the role of technology to gather, condense, and disperse vast data and resources. With the evolution in information technology and the digitization of many government agency records, the public should expect fewer obstacles to requests for information. While some City agencies are making significant strides in proactive disclosure by providing information online before it is requested, many others violate the spirit—and letter—of the law by failing to provide basic information within a timely period. In an era when the public should be expecting greater and easier disclosure, we are instead seeing persistent impediments to a more transparent government.

The Office of the Public Advocate is tasked according to the City Charter with ensuring the responsiveness of City agencies to requests for information and data. Complementing these efforts, Public Advocate Bill de Blasio is also the Chair of the Commission on Public Information and Communication (COPIC), whose mission is to ensure greater accountability and transparency in City government. Since the creation of COPIC in 1989, there has been considerable progress in terms of opening information up to the public, but major impediments remain. This report addresses two major challenges: speed of response time and ease of filing a Freedom of Information request.

THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR CITY INFORMATION REQUESTS

The Freedom of Information Law, officially known as “Public Officers Law Article 6, Section 84-90,” stipulates the responsibilities of the State legislature and any government agency within New York State. Under the Public Officers Law, New York City agencies must adhere to a common set of guiding principles and responsibilities.

What is available for public access under FOIL:

- ✓ Under State and municipal law, each agency is required to make available for inspection and copying all “records” except those that are specifically exempt from disclosure by State or Federal statute.<sup>4</sup> A “record” includes: “any information kept, held, filed, produced or reproduced by, with or for an agency.”<sup>5</sup>
- ✓ Government agencies must provide the name, public office address, title and salary of every officer and employee of that agency.
- ✓ Government agencies must also maintain a reasonably current list by subject matter of all records in the possession of the agency.<sup>6</sup> This list must be updated annually and must be posted to the agency’s website.
- ✓ FOIL information on the websites of State agencies must list the name and contact information of the Public Access Officer from whom records shall be available.

What agencies must do to ensure they are equipped to respond to FOIL requests:

- ✓ Every City agency must designate a Public Access Officer, whose responsibilities include ensuring appropriate agency responses to requests for records, maintaining an up to date subject matter list, making records available upon request or denying requests for records in writing.
- ✓ Each government agency must also permit and facilitate the copying of records.<sup>7</sup>

Timeframe for responding to requests:

- ✓ Government agencies must provide access to records, denial of access, or an acknowledgment of receipt within five business days of receiving a FOIL request. If an acknowledgement of receipt is given, then the agency must include an approximate date at which the record will be made available within twenty business days.
- ✓ If the agency has a reasonable circumstances which would bar it from making a determination within twenty days, the must provide a written explanation of the factors and a specific date by which it will respond.
- ✓ A person who is denied access to a record may within 30 days appeal in writing to the head of the agency from which they requested the information.<sup>8</sup>

AN ANALYSIS OF NEW YORK CITY INFORMATION REQUESTS

In October 2011, the Public Advocate sent requests to 35 mayoral agencies, as well as the New York City Department of Education and New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA), asking for a list of all FOIL requests that the agencies received during the first quarter of 2011 (January 1 - March 31) and the status or outcome of each request. Data from the Public Advocate's office was also submitted as part of this citywide review. Thirty of the 38 agencies provided the requested FOIL data within 20 days. Others required more time.

In most cases, City agencies were able to provide a spreadsheet detailing FOIL requests that were received and the status or outcome of these requests. The New York Police Department (NYPD) and Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) – the two agencies with the highest number of reported FOIL requests – were notable exceptions; both failed to provide the requested information in full. NYPD indicated that the department did not have all the requested information for January-March 2011 and therefore instead provided data on FOIL requests received May 1-July 31, 2011. DEP provided a full list of FOIL requests received during the first quarter of 2011 but indicated that the agency does not track whether or not a request was denied, only if the request is open or closed. In order to conduct a comprehensive, citywide review, all submitted FOIL data – including the incomplete data from NYPD and DEP – was used in this report.

This report provides a snapshot of FOIL requests to City agencies over a three-month period. Requests to agencies fluctuate over time, and this study does not attempt to extrapolate long-term conclusions regarding an agency's FOIL responsiveness. However, the data from this three-month period makes clear that a huge variation in both volume and response time exists across agencies.

KEY FINDINGS

- The process for submitting FOIL requests to City agencies and tracking their status is inconsistent and can be extremely challenging for the public to navigate.
  - 311 is not equipped to provide information on agencies' Record Access Officers even though many agencies route all their call traffic from the general public through 311.
  - 40% of City agencies (15 of 38) lack a page or contact info on their website about where to direct FOIL requests. The City's Green Book also omits this important information.

- For the three months of FOIL data analyzed, roughly 1,000 requests had not received a "yes or no" determination – that's one-in-ten requests where a City agency either ignores or loses the request.
  - NYPD had the largest number of unanswered FOIL requests from the provided 3-month period – 577 unanswered requests as of November 14, 2011.
  - The Department of Design and Construction had the highest ratio of unanswered FOIL requests in the three month period – 40% of their 82 requests had not received a determination. The Department of Corrections and NYPD also reported more than 30% of their FOIL requests unanswered.

- When Agencies responded to FOIL requests, response times varied dramatically by agency.
  - The majority of FOIL requests to City agencies (60%) receive a response within 30 days. 11% received an answer in 30-59 days and 17% took more than 60 days.

RATINGS BY CITY AGENCY:

The 18 City agencies that received more than 100 FOIL requests were awarded letter grades for their FOIL performance. Letter grades are derived from three important indicators of FOIL performance: (1) Response Time (the percent of FOIL requests taking 60+ days for determination); (2) Unanswered Requests (the percent of FOIL requests that received no response); and (3) Ease of Filing (an assessment of the public information available to assist individuals when filing FOIL requests). The overall letter grade awarded to agencies is a weighted average of the three indicators. "Response Time" and "Unanswered" are each worth 40% of the total grade. "Ease in Filing" accounts for 20%. All letter grades are based on the standard A-F grading system. Specific breakdowns by City agency are included in the appendixes at the end of the report.<sup>9</sup>

<sup>9</sup> Letter grades were assigned for each indicator in relation to the average score across all 18 agencies. For "Response Time", the C average was pegged to 13% of responses taking 60+ days for determination. For "Unanswered Requests", the C average was pegged to 10% of FOIL requests going unanswered. Agencies that scored at or above this marker earned A, B, or C grades; those that scored below earned D or F grades. The third indicator, "Ease in Filing", scored agencies based on the amount of information provided to assist individuals when filing FOIL requests: (1) readily accessible contact information; (2) detailed instructions on how to submit a FOIL request; (3) a sample FOIL request or form; (4) the option to submit a request online or via email; and (5) details about the notification and appeals process. If an agency has any of these measures in place, they scored one point. The overall score was then translated into a grade from A-F.

AGGREGATE ANALYSIS

Quantity of FOIL Requests:

During the three months analyzed, City agencies received a total of 9,970 FOIL requests. More than half – 5,680 – of these requests were made to only three agencies: the Department of Transportation (1,655 requests) the New York Police Department (1,883 requests), and the Department of Environmental Protection (2,142 requests). On the other end of the spectrum, twenty agencies received fewer than 100 FOIL requests over the same three-month period. Eight agencies received fewer than ten FOIL requests.

Outcomes of FOIL Requests Received:

Of the total FOIL requests reported to the Public Advocate's office, only 22% included information on the outcome of cases. Of the 2,119 requests where the outcome was indicated, 88% were granted in full or in part, and 12% were denied.

Turn-around Time on FOIL Requests:

Approximately 60% of all FOIL requests received a determination in less than 30 days. Of the remaining requests, approximately 12% took 30-59 days for determination and 17% took 60 days or more. A full 11% were outstanding – with no determination rendered – after more than six months, when the data was requested by the Public Advocate’s office in Fall 2011.

There is considerable range across agencies in the amount of elapsed time between when a request is submitted and a determination is made. The majority of agencies with the best turnaround time are those with the fewest number of requests. However, the Department of Transportation – with the third highest number of requests (1,655) – provided a response within 30 days in 86% of all FOIL requests. The Department of Education, on the other hand, received 194 FOIL requests, yet was only able to provide determination within 30 days to 7% of requests.

Non-determination:

Perhaps the most concerning indicator of agency non-compliance is the rate of “non-determination.” One out of every ten FOIL requests had not received even a “yes” or “no” response from agencies six months after the initial request. Such delays are unacceptable and represent de-facto denials.

By far, the agencies with the highest rates of non-determination are the NYPD, the Department of Corrections, and the Department of Design and Construction. These agencies have non-determination rates of over 30%, though there is a wide variation in the total number of requests per agency complicating cross-agency comparisons.<sup>10</sup>

While the reasons for non-determination are myriad, failure to provide an indication of “yes” or “no” six months after receiving a request undermines the spirit of the Freedom of Information Law. Further, if a case is classified as “pending,” it becomes difficult for a requestor to challenge an agency’s delay as they must wait for determination in order to make an appeal.

<sup>10</sup> The NYPD had 1,883 requests and non-determination in 577; the Department of Correction had 118 requests and non-determination in 38; and the Department of Design and Construction had 82 requests and non-determination in 33.

CURRENT OVERSIGHT OF INFORMATION REQUESTS

Although some government agencies such as the NYPD have been described as fostering a “pattern and practice” of violating the time requirements of FOIL requests,<sup>11</sup> this report represents New York City’s first comprehensive look at government responsiveness to public information requests. FOIL clearly stipulates the responsibilities of agencies to respond to requests in a timely manner; however, there are currently few mechanisms aside from appeals and judicial remedy to force compliance when an agency violates this responsibility.<sup>12</sup> When an agency fails to respond within the stipulated timeframe, such failure constitutes a denial. In these circumstances, an agency can be forced to comply through legal action<sup>13</sup> – an option beyond the capacity of many petitioners.

To help provide oversight and guidance on these matters, the New York State Committee on Open Government was created. The Committee, which is housed in the Department of State, oversees and advises state government, the public, and news media on Freedom of Information, Open Meetings, and Personal Privacy Protection Laws.<sup>14</sup> While the Committee has no direct enforcement power, it does seek to resolve controversies in which rights may be unclear and keeps an online archive of its Advisory opinions.<sup>15</sup> The Committee also provides resources and training to government and other interested groups. The Committee on Open Government is a strong advocate for improving access to public information through proactive disclosure – encouraging government agencies to “push” information out to the public, therefore minimizing the need for formal FOIL requests. At the City level, the Commission on Public Information and Communication (COPIC) could feasibly provide a similar oversight function, but it has been underutilized and unstaffed for much of the last decade due to budgetary constraints.<sup>16</sup>

City and State law does not require regular reporting on the status of FOIL requests to the general public. This lack of reporting limits effective oversight and makes it difficult to ascertain whether delayed responses are indicative of more systemic problems. In an effort to push for greater compliance and reduce the backlog of requests, the federal government passed the Electronic Freedom of Information Act Amendments of 1996 that requires each agency to report to the Attorney General of the United States on the status of their FOIA requests, the number of outstanding requests, median response times, and the number of staff assigned to process FOIA requests.<sup>17</sup> In a similar vein, Public Advocate Bill de Blasio introduced legislation in 2010 (Intro 0227-2010) that would require New York City agencies to regularly report how many FOIL requests they have received, as well as the status of these requests.<sup>18</sup>

CHALLENGES & ADVANCES IN INFORMATION REQUESTS

Persistent Obstacles:

The process of correctly filing a FOIL request at New York City government agencies can be extremely challenging for the public. Whereas the New York State Comptroller's Office provides an online list of the contact information for the Public Access Officer for every state agency, no such resource currently exists for New York City agencies.<sup>19</sup> Neither 311 nor the City's Green Book, for example, currently have this information. In order to file a request with a City agency, a requestor must identify where to send the FOIL request and understand the correct format for submission. While some agencies make this information fairly accessible on their website, it is virtually impossible to locate on the lion's share of New York City agency websites.<sup>20</sup> A requestor must scroll through a seemingly endless series of links before locating information on submitting FOIL requests.

With the rise of information technology, many agencies have witnessed an increase in the number of FOIL requests they receive, creating new staffing demands. The responsibilities of FOIL officers at government agencies are complex, sometimes demanding considerable personnel time in order to appropriately respond to a request.<sup>21</sup> FOIL officers must make determinations of whether information requested constitutes a "record" under the meaning of the Public Officers Law, as well as whether the requested information is exempt from disclosure. They must also exhaustively search the agency's files for records, sometimes navigating complex search criteria.<sup>22</sup> In short, the responsibilities of a FOIL officer are extensive, and voluminous or complex searches can be burdensome for City agencies if they are not sufficiently staffed.

The disjointed, complex, and sluggish character of FOIL requests is not limited to City agencies. State and Federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests face similar impediments to prompt and transparent information requests. Despite court rulings that require government agencies to respond to FOIA requests within 20 days, many requests go unanswered for years and – in some cases – decades. In a recent exposé of Federal FOIA requests, it was disclosed that some Federal agencies had not yet fulfilled requests dating as far back as 1992.<sup>23</sup>

Recent Progress:

Since the adoption of FOIL more than 35 years ago, the law has been amended and strengthened to ensure its continued relevancy. With the advances in information technology, new efforts are underway to amend the language of the law in order to mandate more proactive disclosure of frequently requested information by publishing data and records on the internet.

In 2012, New York City approved a landmark piece of legislation to require City agencies to publish their quantitative data sets through an online portal, enabling the public and private sector to access large quantities of data which were previously available only through FOIL requests.<sup>24</sup> Although this process will take several years to complete, a handful of City agencies demonstrated early leadership by providing datasets through the City's Open Data website.<sup>25</sup>

New York State has also made improvements in the use of technology to ensure state agencies and offices are more open and responsive to public inquiries. The state has proactively disclosed more routinely requested data and information <sup>26</sup> in March 2013, Governor Cuomo launched Open.NY.Gov, a comprehensive state data transparency website that "provides - for the first time - user-friendly, one-stop access to data from New York State agencies, localities, and the federal government."<sup>27</sup> State legislation introduced in 2011 aims to further advance these positive trends by compelling government agencies to provide all information of substantial public interest on their website, ensuring easier access to information.<sup>28</sup>

CASE STUDY: CHICAGO

The City of Chicago is one of several cities that have made great strides to improve the accessibility and use of the Freedom of Information Act in recent years. Chicago maintains an easily accessible online hub for commonly requested information, including requests on licensing, vehicles, business-related issues, and meeting minutes. The city also maintains a FOIA Request Log for each city agency. The Request Log includes a summary of every FOIA request made since 2010, including the date information was requested and the due date for an anticipated response. This ensures that requestors have clear, direct communication with city agencies and better understand the process for filling FOIA requests, and can hold agencies accountable should responses be delayed. The Federal Government has also taken active steps to improve government transparency, in part by utilizing new technologies to disclose information to the public. Recently, a joint effort by the Environmental Protection Agency, Department Of Commerce, National Archives and Records Administration, Merit Systems Protection Board, Federal Labor Relations Authority, and Department of the Treasury led to the creation of FOIAonline.<sup>29</sup> This online tool enables the public to query and track the status of their requests. Users may search for previously released records, communicate directly with agencies, and receive electronic records. The tool is in its initial phases and currently only applies to five agencies and offices,<sup>30</sup> but it has the potential to dramatically reduce the confusion, elapsed time, and improve transparency of FOIA requests. Beyond simply streamlining the FOIA process, the initiative also has the potential to reduce processing costs when it is adopted by all federal agencies. One estimate anticipates a cost-savings of approximately $40 million per year.<sup>31</sup> In 2012, the Public Advocate's office partnered with a team of developers from Code for America, Reboot, GovHub and Reinvent Albany to create a comparable prototype for New York City.<sup>32</sup> The website called OpenUpNYC was unveiled at the 2012 Personal Democracy Forum.

<sup>30</sup> Participating agencies include: the Department of Commerce (except the US Patent and Trademark Office), the Environmental Protection Agency, The Federal Labor Relations Authority, the Merit Systems Protection Board, and the National Archives and Records Administration. As of December 10, the Department of the Treasury has implemented FOIAonline in limited capacity, serving the Departmental Offices, The Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Bureau of Fiscal Services, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, and the U.S. Mint. ## RECOMMENDATIONS

To help improve the City's responsiveness to information requests, Public Advocate de Blasio has put forward the following recommendations:

- 1. Strengthen the City's oversight of FOIL responsiveness. New York City should adopt legislation based on Intro 227 requiring City agencies to provide monthly reports to the City Council and Public Advocate on the status of FOIL requests.<sup>33</sup> This reporting is necessary to ensure that no FOIL requests are ignored – either accidentally or purposefully – and to shine a light on City agencies that repeatedly violate FOIL. This information should also be annually reported to the public in the Mayor's Management Report.
- 2. Speed requests for the most commonly-sought information and reduce FOIL officer workload by posting minutes, public schedules and license data online for easy access. All Record Access Officers at City agencies should receive annual training on FOIL compliance, which is available at no cost through the New York State Committee on Open Government.
- 3. Ensure greater accountability. The Commission on Public Information and Communication (COPIC) should conduct semi-annual reviews of Agency FOIL compliance based on monthly reports submitted to the City Council and Public Advocate. If any agency accrues more than 25 FOIL requests that have remained unanswered for six months or more, this should automatically trigger a resolution in front of COPIC and the Commissioner of said agency shall submit testimony explaining its lapse in FOIL compliance.
  - ✓ Non-compliant City agencies should be required to submit an improvement plan to COPIC on how it will improve its performance.
  - ✓ Non-compliant City agencies should be required to provide updates and frequent reports to COPIC about its FOIL process and requests.
  - ✓ In the event that the agency fails to remedy its non-compliance after such informal efforts, COPIC should submit such findings in writing to the Mayor and the Speaker of the City Council, and the Mayor should take appropriate measures to ensure compliance.
- 4. Streamline the process of filing FOIL requests and getting updates on their status. To ease the process of filing FOIL requests and getting updates on their status, the City should provide a centralized list of all Agency record access officers with their contact information. This information should also be available through the City's Green Book and 311. As an interim measure, the Public Advocate will maintain a list of FOIL officers online. New York City should also follow the federal government's lead and transition to a single online portal for processing FOIL requests to City agencies, building on efforts underway at the Public Advocate's office.
- 5. Assess fines for non-compliance. Agencies must be encouraged to comply with both spirit and the letter of the law. Agencies that do not should be sanctioned with a fine for each day of non-compliance. Similar sanctions have been instituted in Washington State and Illinois, and have encouraged greater agency compliance. In New York City, these fines would be assessed after a court finds an agency to be at fault – including in cases of excessive delays or a ‘pattern and practice’ of FOIL violations.

- 6. Pass legislation mandating that all City agencies must proactively publish commonly-requested records online. The FOIL law was written in a different era – one with significant technological limitations that made proactive disclosure costly and difficult. With the development of network technology and accessible platforms for communication, City agencies have a new opportunity to proactively ‘push’ commonly requested information to the public by publishing information on their websites. Public Advocate Bill de Blasio has proposed legislation that would require City agencies to proactively publish commonly requested material online. This law would augment the success of Local Law 11 and encourage agencies to modernize their disclosure practices.
